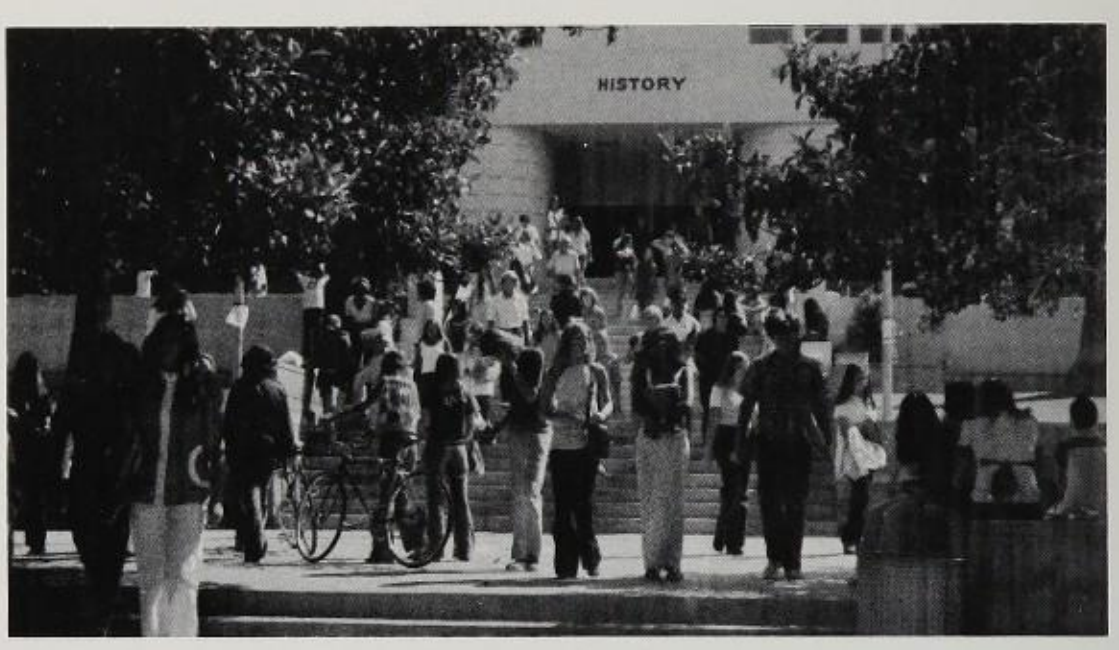
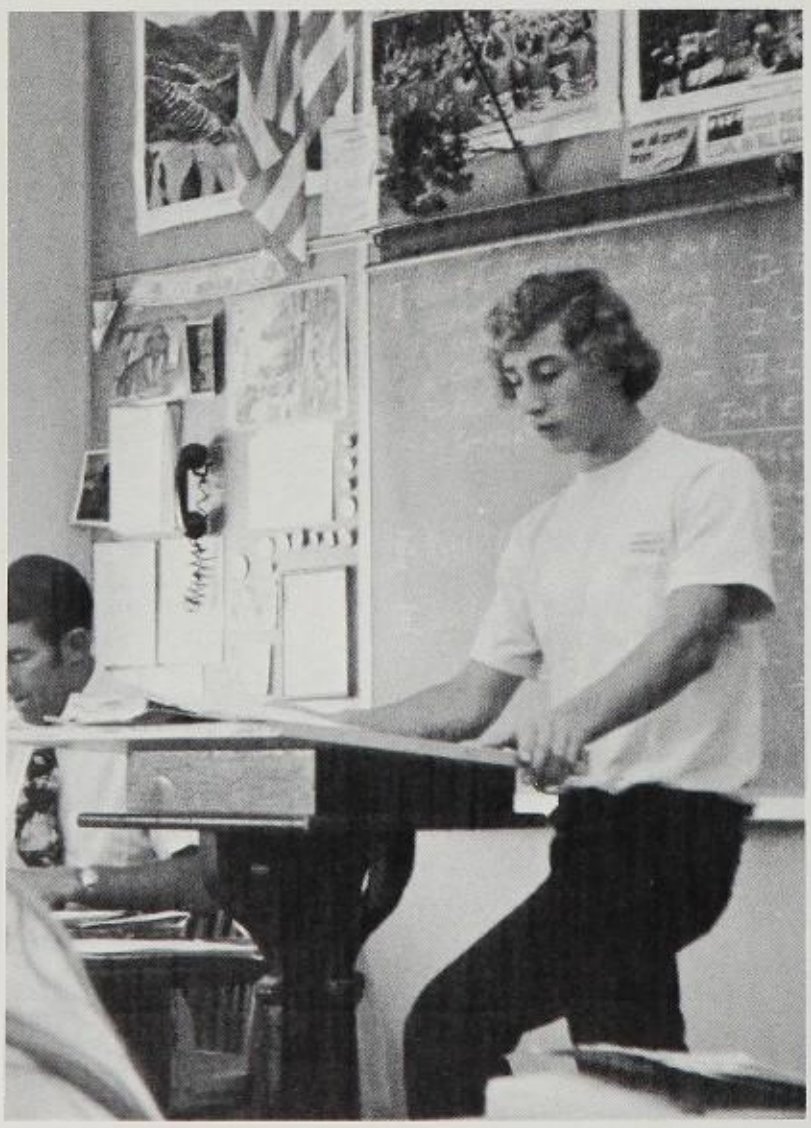
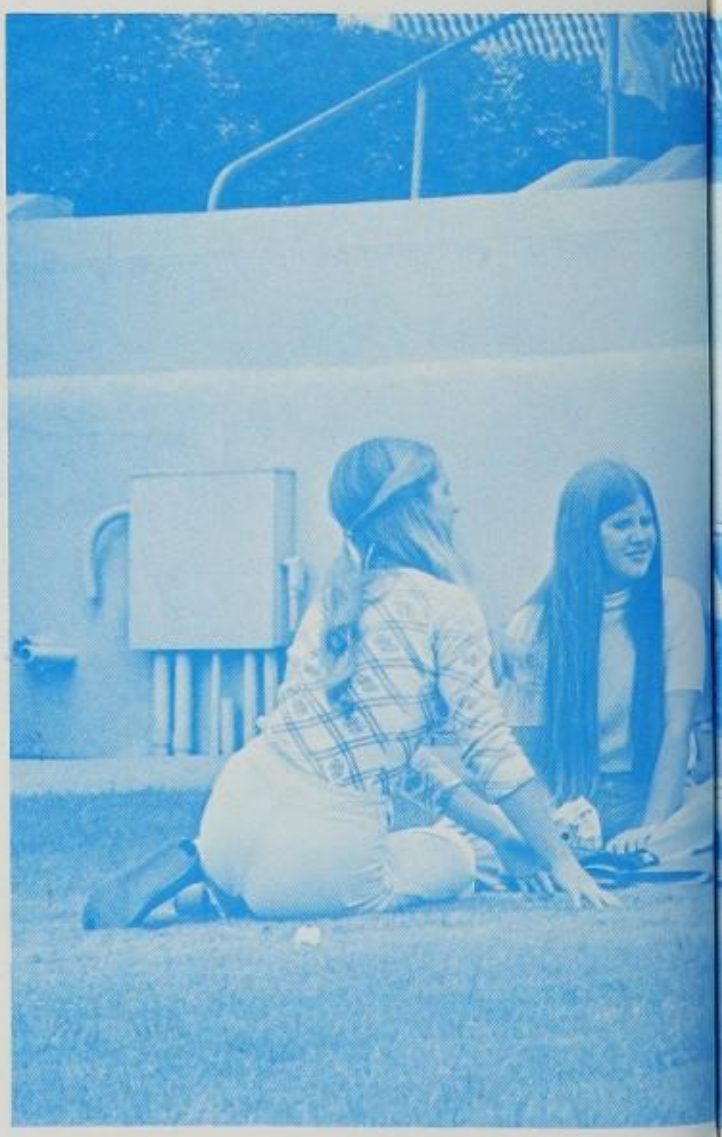
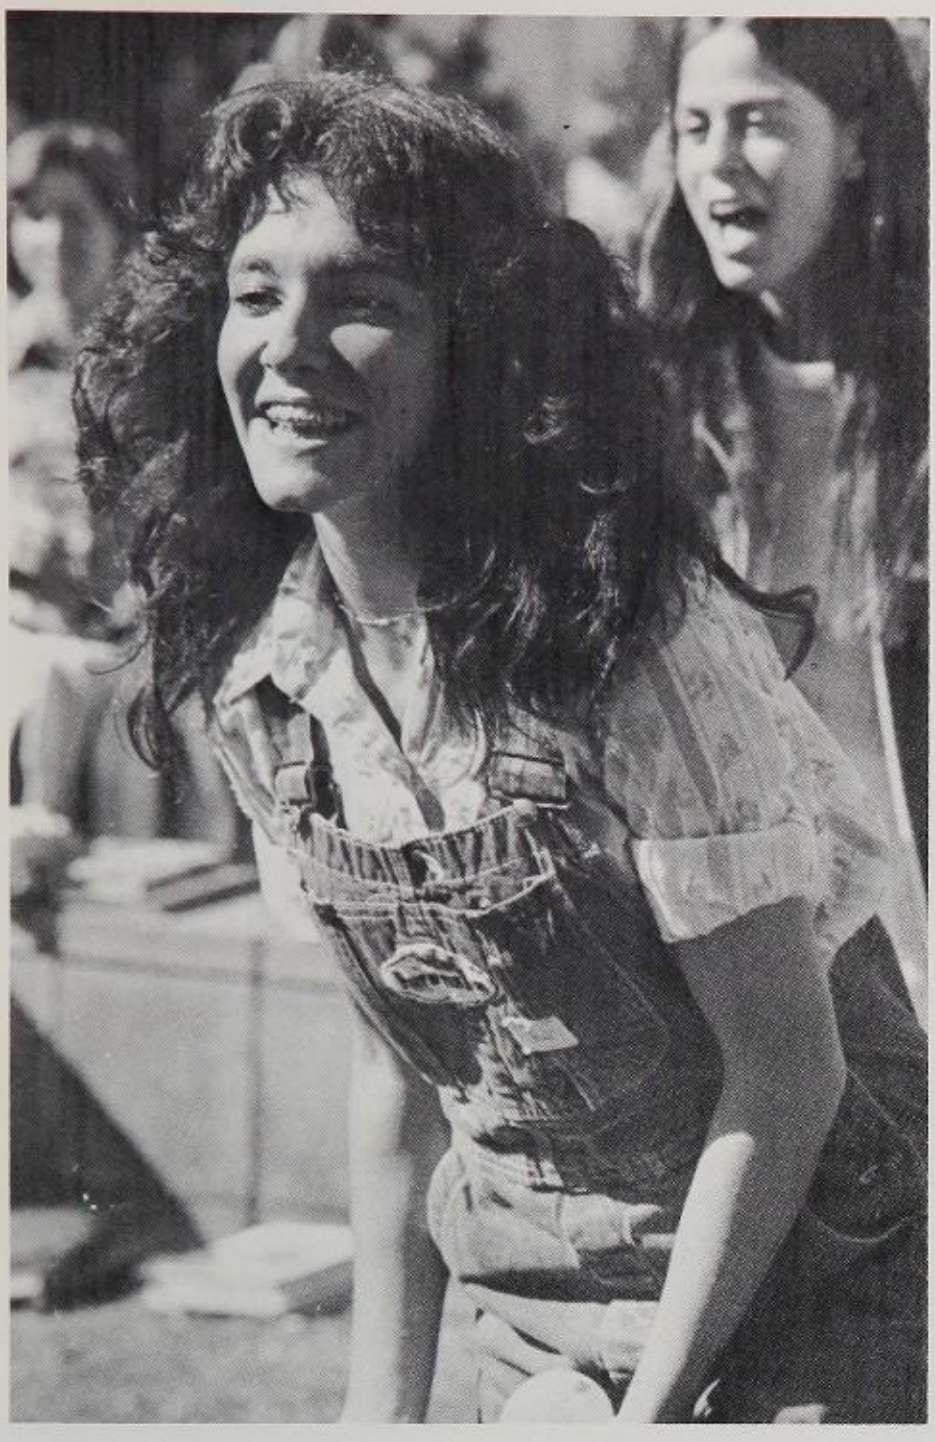
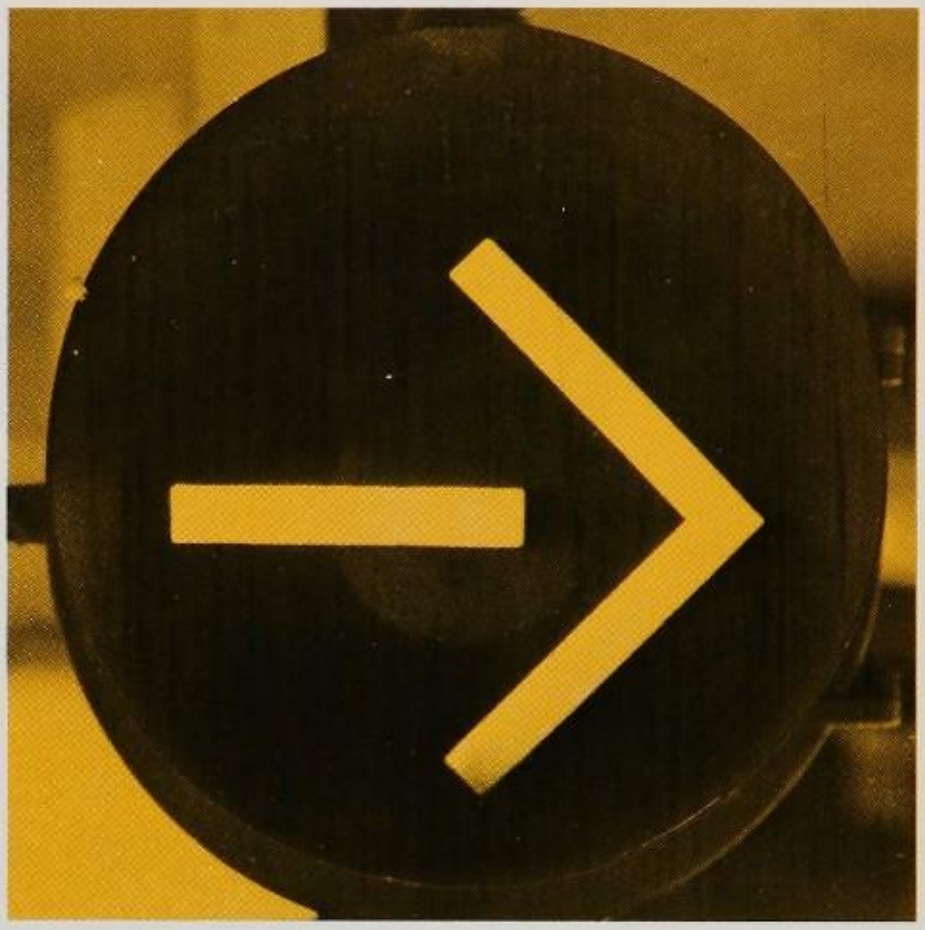
On the road of being ourselves . . .

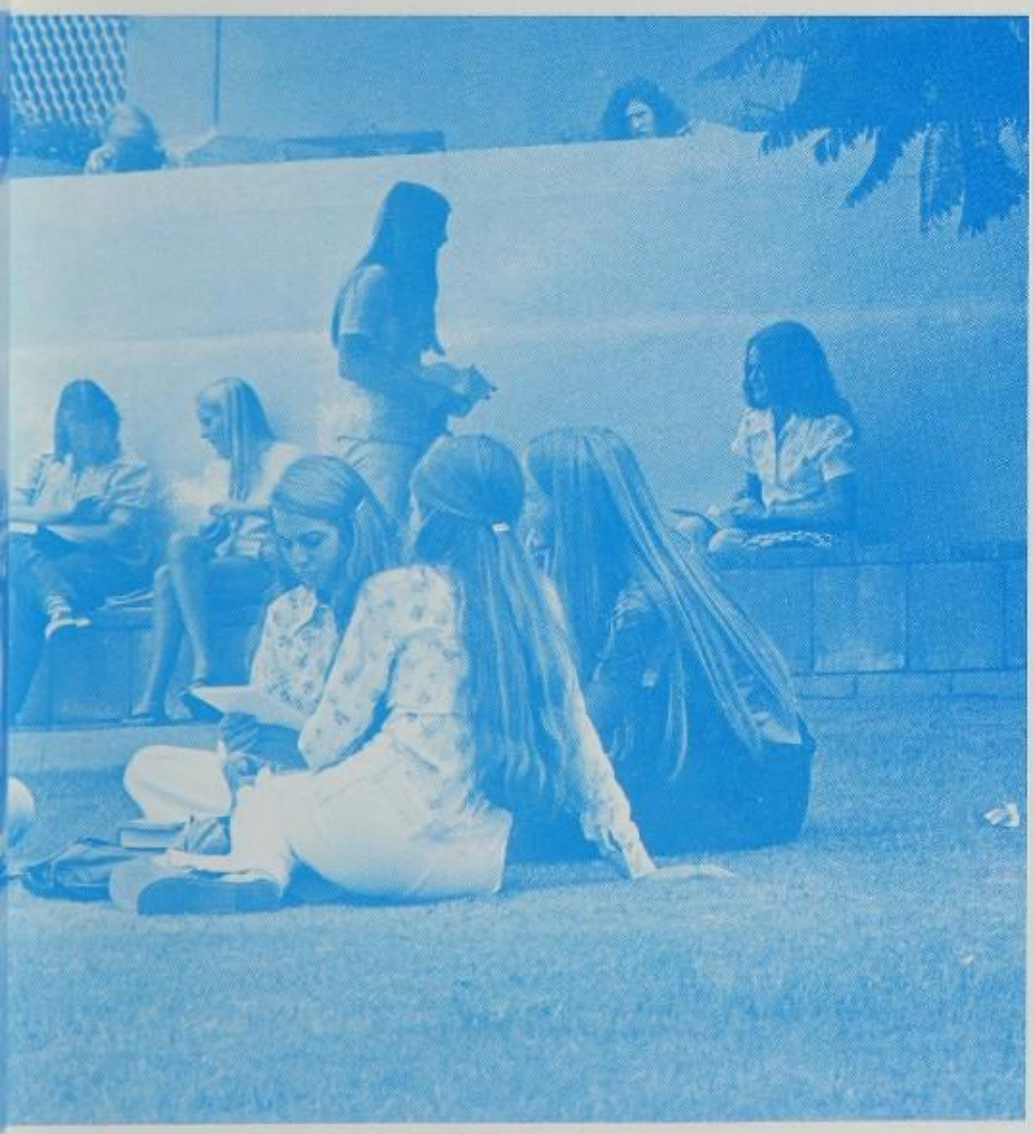












You don't need Direction,
You know which way to go
And I don't want to hold you back,
I just want to watch you grow.

The times you were born may not have been the best,
But you can make the times to come better than the rest.

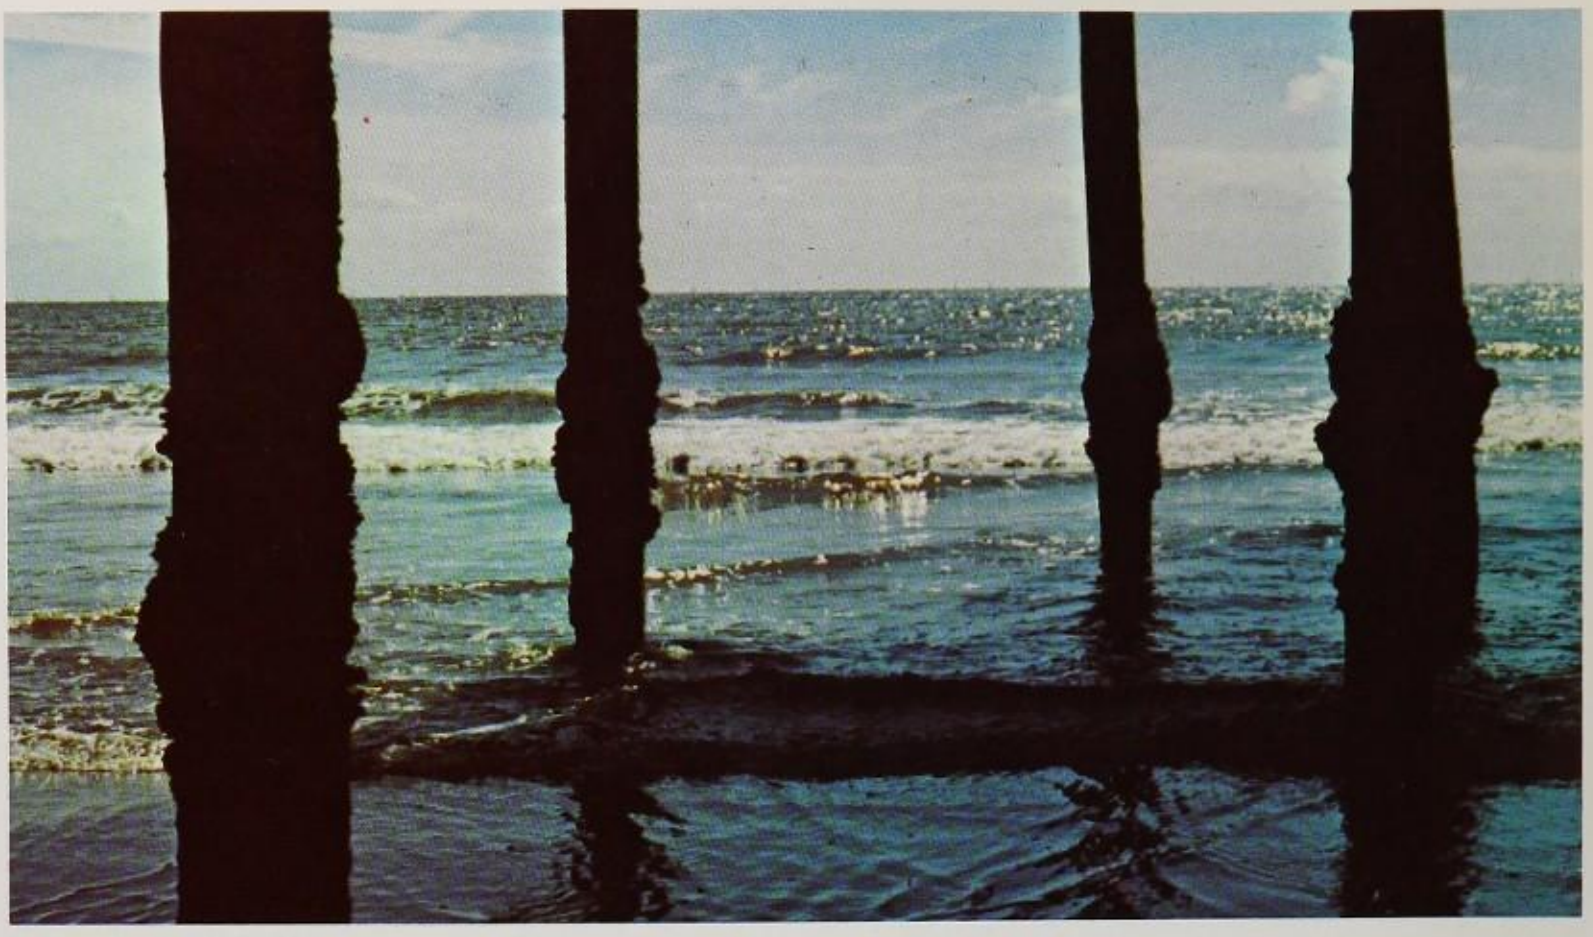
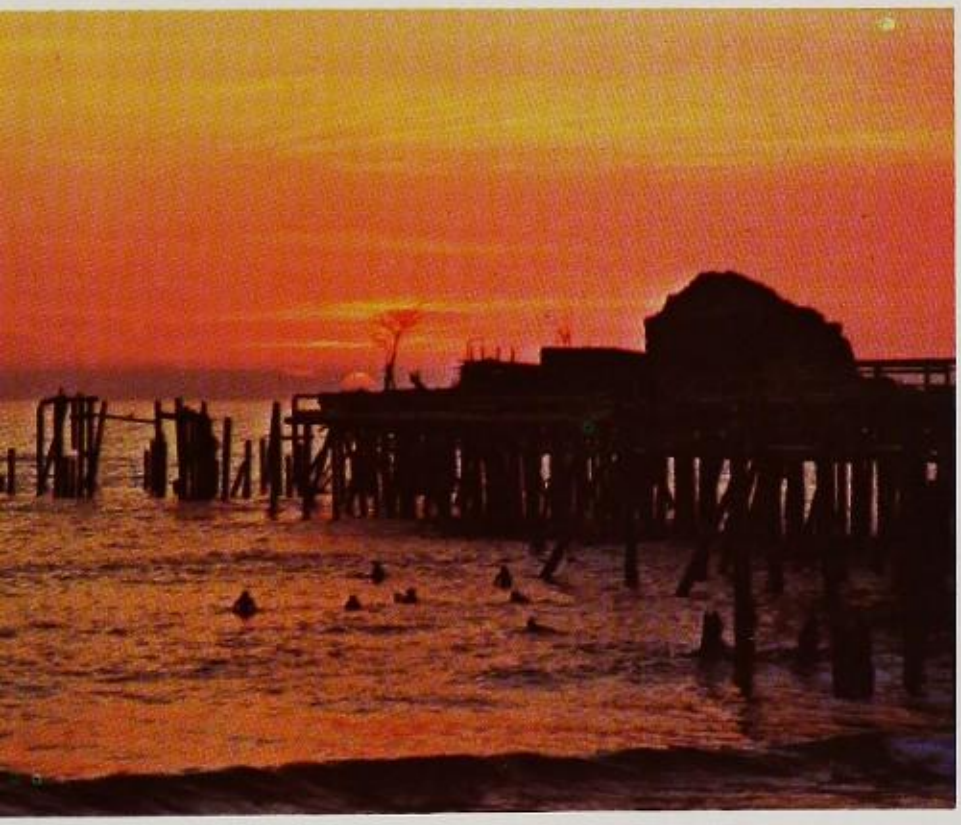
Carole King & Gerry Goffin





We must not lose sight of that line crimsoned by the dawn. After thousands of years rising below the horizon a flame burst forth at a strictly localized point.

I have to say, my friends,
This road goes a long, long way.
And if we're going to find the end,
We're gonna need a helping hand.

Odin's Odyssey

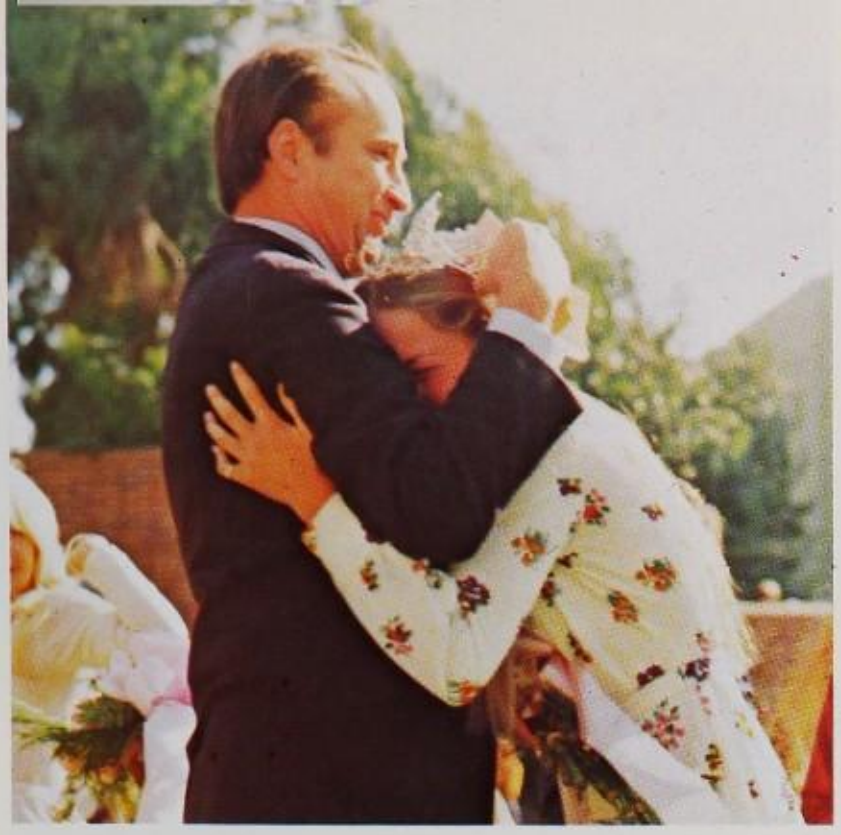
It was finally here - the event everyone had worked, planned, worried about and waited patiently for - Homecoming! The two day social whirl began with a lunchtime festival in the quad. The Sophomore Class Board organized and staffed a booth where Vikes tried their luck at shooting candles with a water pistol and guessing the number of candies in a jar. Financially, the booth was a flop, raising a grand total of $2.80. But who could think of money when it was so much fun? The Junior Class sponsored a water balloon throwing contest; it was great for relieving aggression! One of the highlights of the day was the great tug-of-war upset. The band destroyed both the rope and the opposition - A.S.B. and several star football players. The Biology Honor Society raised the most money and the most indignation. To the highest bidder, the Society offered the chance to embarrass a "friend" with a pie in the face.

Thursday night showed just who the dedicated really are! Bleary-eyed and bone-tired students stayed up far into the night; quite a few even saw the sun come up. They decorated floats (a little) and laughed, flirted, ate, and talked (a lot). Out of all this confusion came some beatutifully designed floats and a traditionally artistic t.p. job on the quad by the Class of 1976.

The smell of sausages and pancakes rose along with the sun Friday morning, as hungry hordes of Vikings waited eagerly for a delicious breakfast served by A.S.B. The size of the crowd-and their appetites - surprised the one cook; the line wrapped around the cafeteria and stretched to the administration building! This caused a slight delay in dispensing the goodies, but the waiting was borne good naturedly by all.



Friday at noon, Samohi students and alumni crowded the Greek Theater, eager to see the crowning of Odin's queen. Besides the usual pep rally festivities, the winning floats were awarded prizes. The Seniors carried off the First Sweepstakes honor, and the Sophomores captured second place. The Sophomores didn't have much time to admire their handiwork; soon after the rally the float went up in flames. The Orchestra was the proud and deserving recipient of the "Door Prize," a real door presented to the hardest workers.

Mr. Aubrey Austin, president of nearby Santa Monica Bank, was installed ceremoniously into the Hall of Fame. He is an alumnus of "dear ol' Samo" and imparted some traditional Viking spirit to the crowd.

After bestowal of these various honors, the seven Princesses, along with their escorts, were presented. Finally, The Moment arrived! Mr. Pearson and two tiny crown-bearers came forth. Mr. Pearson took the crown and walked toward the seven nervous girls. He stepped forward, hesitated a moment, then gently placed a kiss on Queen Kathy.

And the excitement had just begun . . . !

Journey's End

The Friday night festivities began with a joyfully uninhibited parade down the streets of Santa Monica. Several organizations, and all three classes were represented. The Princesses and Queen Kathy waved to the crowd as the group proceeded through red lights and past gaping passersby to Corsair Field, where they were greeted by enthusiastic cheers from the crowd of spectators.

The Band began to play, the Yell Leaders began their exuberant routines, and the football team trotted on field to the roaring approval of the fans - Homecoming game had begun!

Alas, the game ended less triumphantly than it began, with a heartbreaking 7-3 Viking defeat!

After the game, Vikings gathered at the Girls' Gym to drown their sorrows in a little singing and dancing and carousing. The dance was called "Odyssey Rock, and rock it did! Several hundred students and their friends moved to the music of "Pacific," the evening's featured band. The tragic football game was soon forgotten in the midst of such revelry.

Much of the credit for the two-day festival goes to those dedicated students in A.S.B. Cabinet and Leadership class. These people spent a lot of time and took a lot of trouble to make Homecoming the enjoyable event it was.

As the last of the exhausted straggled home in the wee small hours of dawn, everyone could agree - Homecoming was a success!

Varsity Yell Leaders

The Varsity Yell Leaders were bound straight for success this year. The group branched out in new directions, changing their traditional course.

They began the year with a "District Championship" in camp, beating out the competition of sixty-five high schools. Along with the J.V.'s, they received the "Spirit Stick" two days in a row. This was rewarded not only for their spirit, but for their congeniality and consideration.

The varsity group held successful fund raisers, which paid for camp and provided Vikes with goodies like pretzels and pancakes.

An innovation this year was the basketball pep rallies. These rallies helped show that, "The end of football season is not the end of spirit."

J.V. Yell Leaders

The Junior Varsity Yell Leaders added to, and shared in, the success of the entire Samohi spirit squad. The J.V.'s inspired our Junior Varsity and Sophomore teams to victory, and stirred up spirit in the student body at Friday pep rallies.

The girls' joyful enthusiasm and good humor were doubtlessly responsible for the growing attendance at games and rallies.

The J.V.'s were the proud and deserving recipients of the "Spirit Stick" in summer camp, along with the Varsity Yell Leaders. The J.V.'s plans for the future include pep rallies and halftime performances for the basketball games, and instilling spirit for the water polo matches.

J.V. Yell Leaders-clockwise: Evelyn Clark, Suzy Bergere, Monica McCallister, Colleen Broslow, Denise Mervel, Tracy Roberts.

Victor Viking

"There is only one Vikesville, U.S.A., and Samo is it!" Speaking is Reuben Camacho, Samohi's exuberant Victor Viking. As mascot, Reuben sailed the turbulent Viking waters in search of his Queen. This year, without his partner Vicky, Victor occasionally found the seas "to be very rough without my companion by my side." Being Victor Viking meant a lot to Reuben, "Being the school mascot has enabled me to open up more to my fellow students and faculty; and most important, promote the spirit of our school."

Pep Club

The Pep Club came alive with renewed energy this year! The spirited students quadrupled last year's club membership; they were bigger, louder, and more determined than ever before.

Carried forward by their boundless enthusiasm, Pep Club members jam-packed buses to away games and filled the stands at Samohi sports events.

In the fall, they entered their spectacular "rooter bus" float in the Homecoming competition, and participated in Memorial Day tree planting in the Spring. Besides holding candy and baked goods sales, Pep Club advertised the book you are reading.

The Drill Team attained new heights this year, both literally and figuratively, with tall pennants, a new sponsor, and more emphasis on dance routines rather than their past military style. Miss Brenda Stratton took a firm hand with the Sergeanettes and helped them achieve their objectives of self-esteem and stricter discipline. This background was responsible for their excellence at performances, and their success at raising school spirit.

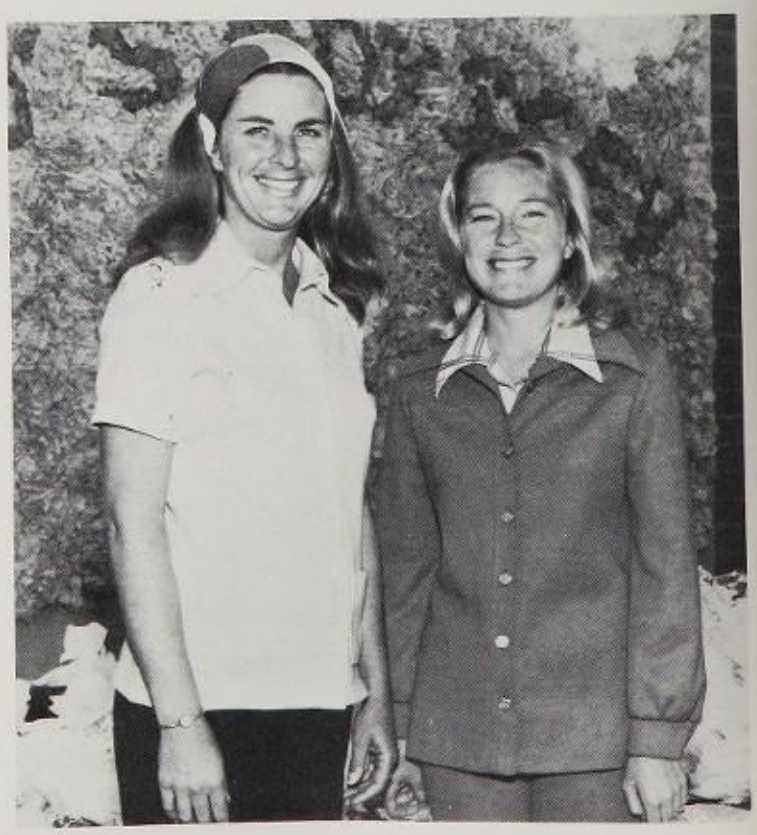
The girls practiced harder and longer this year. They also worked in cooperation with the Fronts to achieve more professional routines. The Sophomores proved to be an enthusiastic, capable group and an asset to the team.

Their hard work and determination paid off with a third place award at the Rosemead parade. The girls also participated in the Santa Monica El Primero parade, and marched at Magic Mountain.

The girls in Sergeanettes got more out of the experience than dance routines. According to many of the girls, the most important lesson they learned was understanding. "You learn to get along with all kinds of people; you make friends with people you'd never meet otherwise."

Being a Sergeanette meant giving up a lot of their time to rehearse, and re-rehearse, until the routines were up to the drill team's standard of excellence. But the girls didn't mind at all. "It's worth it all when you're out there performing, and you know you're doing your very best."

Congratulations to the Sergeanettes for a superior season!



Advisors - Gina Biggs and Brenda Stratton

Captains- Pat Monreal, Renee Lewis, Roslyn McCowan, Kim Randle.

Captains

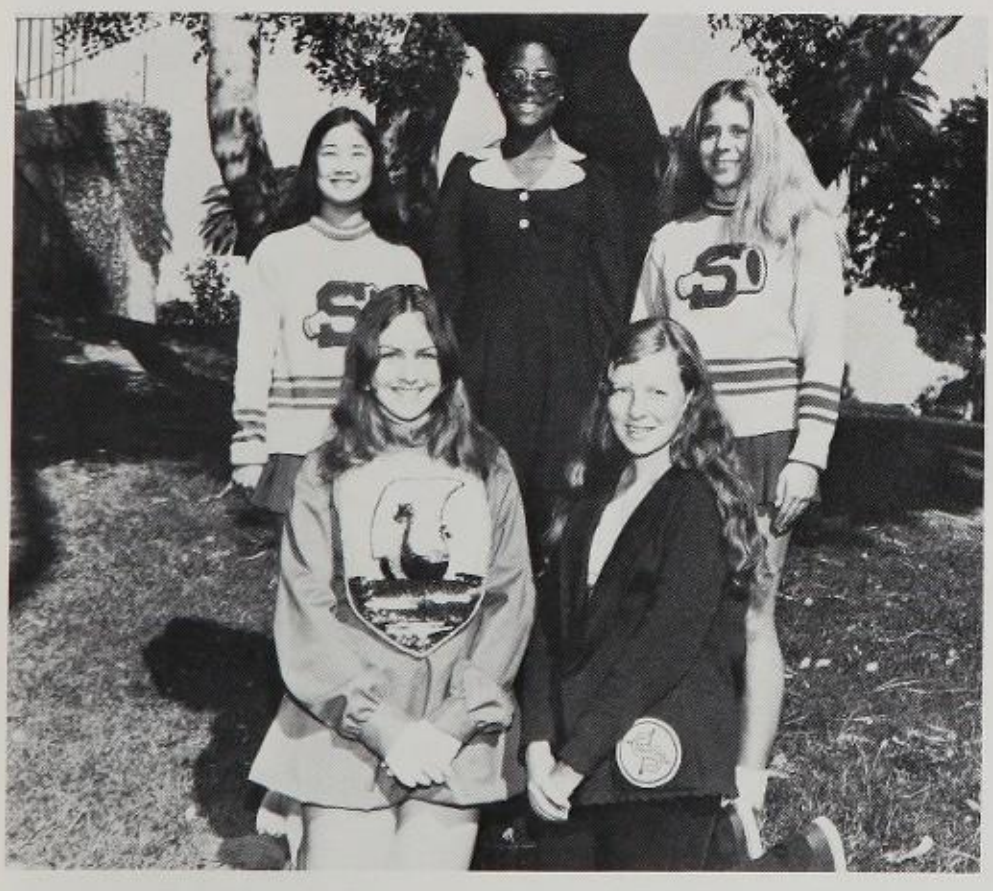
The Captains overcame a little turbulence while piloting the Drill Team this year. Due to the change in sponsors, the Captains found themselves organizing drill without adult assistance. They got it together in time to take the First Sergeants to camp - something that's never been done before.

The Captains saw other innovations: tighter discipline and greater cooperation helped make the routines smoother and more imaginative.

The dedicated girls devoted 99% of their time whipping the drill team into superior shape. They didn't consider it a sacrifice. "Coming in contact with such diversified personalities makes you aware of others' feelings."



Sergeanette Officers-clockwise: Sherry Yamamoto, Diane Thurman, Cynthia Adkins, Suzan Watts, Judy Darling.

Flags

The Flags dazzled Vikings once again with their fancy flagwork. The girls were featured performers at football and basketball games, pep rallies, and parades.

Four of the five Flags went to camp in Santa Barbara this summer. Following the precedent set by the entire spirit squad, the Flags received high honors in competition, and placed third with a routine they choreographed.

The Flags worked to finance their projects by holding a car wash and bake sale, raising $90.00.

After football season, the girls passed their flags on to new Flags-to-be. They spent the spring sharing the secrets of their skills with their successors.

J.V. Yell Leaders-clockwise: Evelyn Clark, Suzy Bergere, Monica McCallister, Colleen Broslow, Denise Mei Tracy Roberts.

Banners

The Banners marched brightly forward once again this football season. The nine dedicated girls worked hard to inspire our football team to victory, and they had fun doing it!

The girls overcame the limits of a too-small budget by foregoing a new banner and improving their footwork and form.

A mix-up in dates resulted in our girls ending up at the wrong summer camp! Undaunted, they had a great time.

The Banners contributed immeasurably to the success of Samo's spirit squad.

Songs

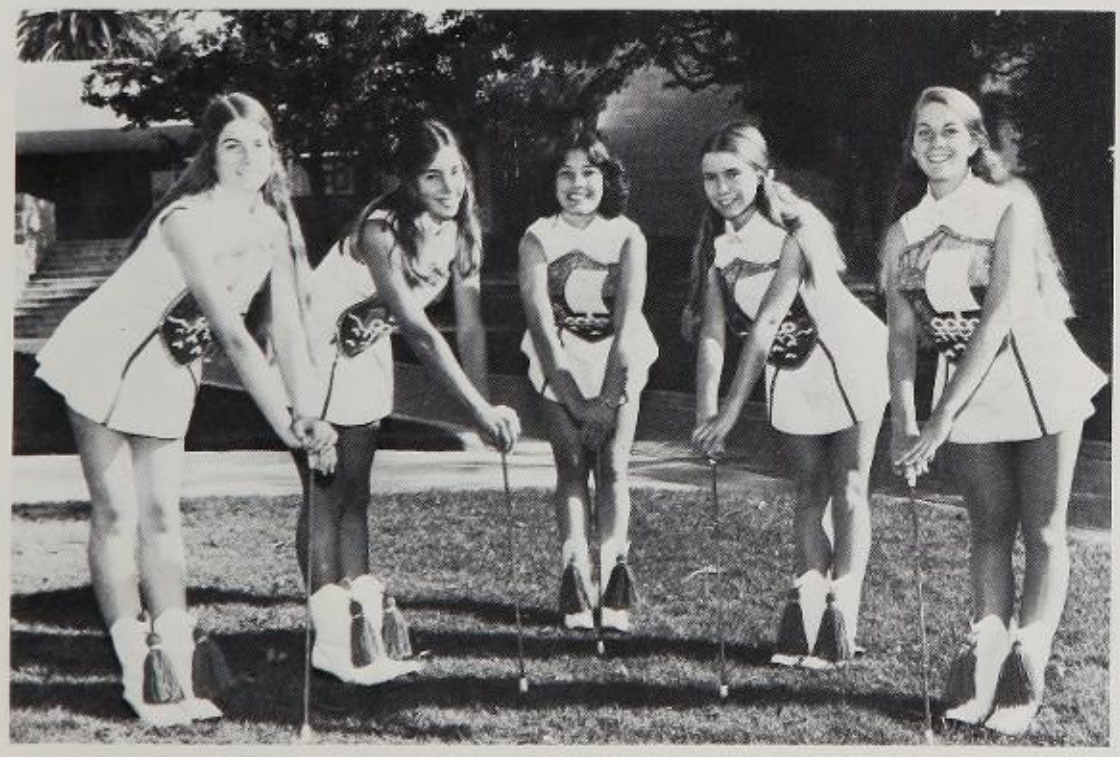
"We're the bubbly, bouncy, enthusiastic Songs, and we love it!" So said one of the Songs,and observers had to agree with her. The spirited Songs led Vikings in cheers, and kept us smiling all year long.

The Songs impressed the judges at summer camp, enough so that they were awarded "Third Best District Routine." They were voted superior, and received the most points for overall excellence.

The girls weren't in it just for the glory. They found that being a Song enabled them to meet people, and face the world with a smile.



Majorettes- Diane Garvin, Virginia Arnold, Marianne Souza, Karen Baluda, Debbie Garvin.

Majorettes

The Majorettes attained amazing dexterity in performance this year. Their routines proved to be intricate, complicated, and consistently well performed. Although unable to compete in parades, the Majorettes added their special brand of spirit to the pep rallies and halftime performances.

At camp, the girls received a "Best All Around" trophy, and a second place trophy for their superior twirling ability.

Four of the five Majorettes were Juniors, so Samo looked forward to another season with the talented twirlers.

Viking Band

The Band provided the spirited background music for football games and rallies this year. The talented Viking musicians could be seen - and heard - in the chilly early mornings, rehearsing their marches and music in the Civic Auditorium parking lot. Under the direction of Mr. Zachman, the band proved to be a musically superior group.

The Band competed in the "El Primero Parade" and won a third place in the AA Division. They performed with the drill team at Magic Mountain this winter, and as usual, was a big hit at the Spring Concert and Stairway to the Stars.

The members of the Band include: Flutes- Karen Anderson, Maria Audero, Dana Borowka, Carrie Clark, Viveca Cole, Anne Cooper, Scott Cotteen, Ashley Dodge, Suzy Doucette, Lori Fenster, Nancy Holliday, Rita Krakower, Debbie Koutsouris, Pat Jackson, Rick Nelson, Phyllis Rourke, Christie Scott, Debbie Shannon, Terri Skipper, Ken Watanabe Clarinets- Susan Adkins, Clarissa Bealer, April Berger, Matt Boone, Damon Byrd, Barbara Canady, Andrea Çole, Jeff Farrar, Holly Hadlock, Jean Harase, Randy Hill, Bob Koto, Laila Orrestad, Mike Princiotta, Adeline Swami, Brett Taylor, Ken Wallman, Carole Watts, Mary Widich Alto Clarinet- Doug Takahashi Alto Sax- Glenn Butterman, Gaines Coleman, Jeff Eck, Karen Fukushima, Susan Kern, Rod McDonald, Brenda Moline, Mark Naylor Tenor Sax- Lisa Bolton, Lee Kimble, Andres Meza, Becky Mroch, Robin Peterson, Paul Ravare, Andy Spanberger, Cliff Watkins, Harriet Yuzuki Baritone Sax- John Jones, Tony Sauceda, Bob Sheets Trumpets- Steve Doucette, Ken Downing, Dave Friedman, Allan Gallagher, Jim Harmon, Karin Hofland, Carol Horak, Rick Inman, Tom Koto, Charles Lund, George Morgan, Doug Morrison, Walter Okitso, Bob Path, Roy Stott, Janet Weisshaar Baritone- Dirk Lovett, Peter Sheppard, Scott Taylor French Horn- Mike Alstrom, Edward Okitsu, Lindsay Robinson, Mark Veneklassen Trombone- Mark Barnard, Greg Ellis, John Grab, Brett Gripp, Bob Hedges, Chris Hofland, Tony Martinez, Mark Pomeroy, Judy Seeds, Kevin Taylor Tuba- Alan Barton, Craig Childress, Ken Fall, Carl Madsen, Barry Miller, Mark Salma, Tarek Shraibati Percussion- John Frank, Danny Gayol, Mike Grant, Sean Halliburton, Ken Jones, Judy Kamabayashi, Todd Parker, James Ramsey, Jeff Steinman, Bob Teufel, Steve Wallin, Jim Wilson

Drum Major Max Nardoni

The Drum Major led the band right on course to a successful season. Max Nardoni displayed an inimitable style that won him a second place in the Mace Drum Major competition.

The Drum Major leads and conducts the band during parades and halftime performances.

Max attended summer camp this year, where he got new ideas for imaginative flourishes, tosses, and salutes.

Samohi and the band owes a lot to the Drum Major for his contribution of style and spirit, and for adding to Samohi's reputation for superior halftime entertainment.

The learning of academic skills is only one portion of a studen total school education. Learning to get along with other peopl very important aspect of growh that a textbook or a classroom lecture just can't teach. Working, debating, playing, competing, discussing and socializing with other students, are all essential learning experiences that will greatly benefit you in years to com Your social involvement at school is a fairly accurate representatio of your social potential in adulthood.

The A.S.B. Cabinet's main concern this year has been to make the social school life of the Samohi student a little more fulfilling. Everything from faculty-student sports events to rock concerts were planned by the Cabinet, to encourage a more satisfying and pleasant social atmosphere for the student body. Happy students are interested students!

Samohi's school government doesn't try, nor desire, to "govern and control" the associated student body. The system of school government is set up to serve and benefit the student body.

I hope all the students graduating from Samohi this year have gained a valuable social knowledge, as well as academic knowledge. — To all the future graduates at Samohi, I am proud to leave an upcoming hard working school government that will diligently seve to make Samohi school life even more beneficial to all of you.

ASB Officers

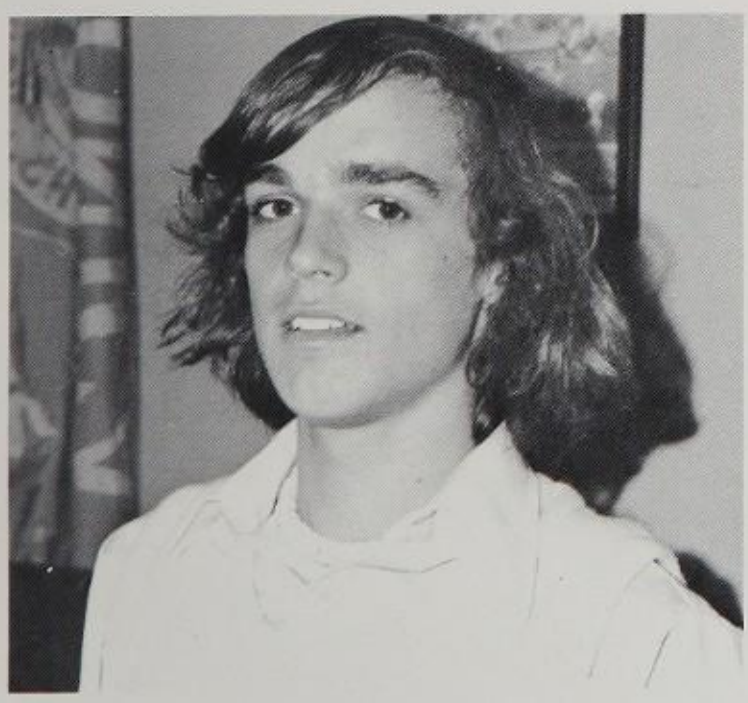
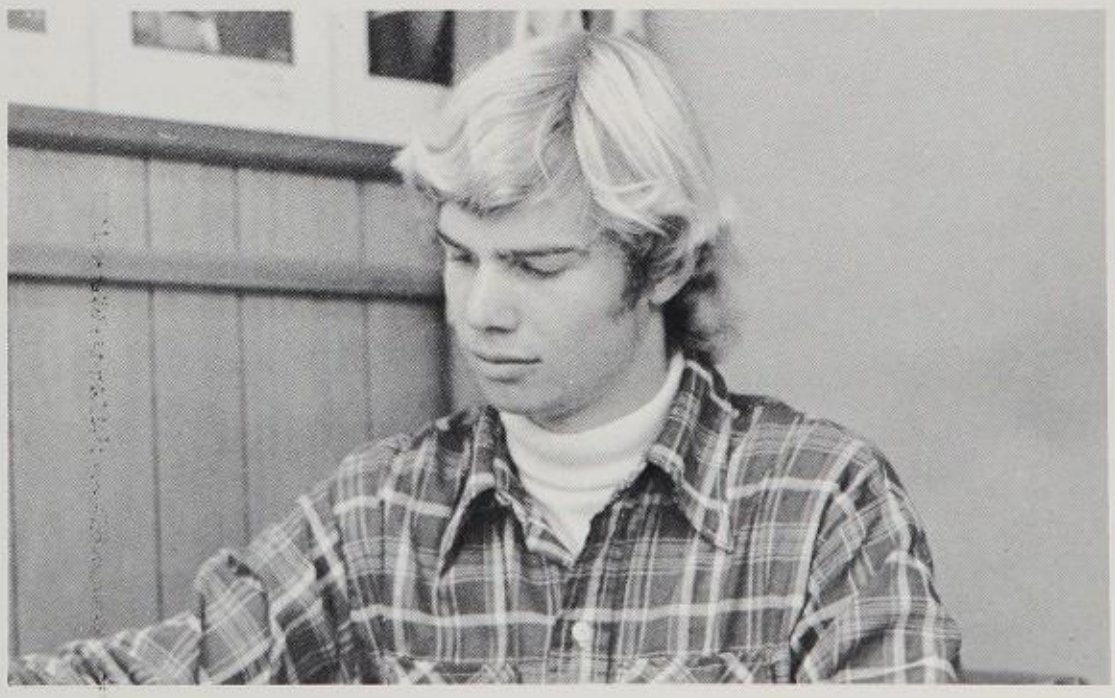
This year, Samohi was privileged to have "a very good Cabinet which worked very efficiently and harmoniously", according to advisor Porter Leach. Under President Craig Childress, Vice President Brad Omick, Speaker of the House Cliff Rooke, Secretary Eileen Barnard, and Treasurer Judy Kamibayashi, the Cabinet saw an innovative and productive year. President Craig kept an eye on all the varied branches of government by popping in on meetings unexpectedly (but somehow we always knew he'd be there); at the same time he was on the lookout for ideas from the student body. Brad stepped up several times to the chair, and was responsible for disorganizing the committees - an incredible job in itself! Eileen kept the minutes, helped count votes, and kept Craig occupied. Judy served as Cabinet's financial analyst, maintaining a sharp watch over the $1,000 in the ASB fund. Cliff presided over the House with a stern hand (and boyish grin). These officers welcomed the next year's officer-elects after Convention '75, held after school hours in May.

The new constitution was put into effect this year, making for several changes in Cabinet procedure. The Vice President of the Sophomore Class joined in Monday morning Cabinet meetings for the first time in Samohi history, in accordance with the emphasis placed on Sophomore representation. The Rep-at-Large system was revamped and given a greater role in government.

All these changes were geared toward accomplishing one major goal - that of increased communication between students and their government.



Brad Omick, Vice President



Cliff Rooke, Speaker of the House

Commissioners

The elected Commissioners were hard at work. Leslie Gainer, Commissioner of Service, was the brave soul heading the Student/Faculty Relations Committee. She helped Jeff Weissman, Commissioner of Entertainment, bring more entertainment to Samohi than ever before. Commissioner of Boys' Service, Don Dorr, organized the madhouse traditionally called the Boys' League Talent Show. Sharyl Gabriel, as Commissioner of Campus Welfare, was in charge of schoolwide charity drives and sponsored the Trash King/Queen contest. Terry Meador as Commissioner of Elections was in the unique position of being the only student to know the identity of the Homecoming Queen days before Homecoming. Wendy Sackett worked to form an active Girls' League and sponsored the Christmas canned food drive. Commissioner of Fine Arts Maria Akiyama organized the Sadie Hawkin's Day festivities. Andre Lundy served as Commissioner of Clubs, a job whose duties included registering all the clubs. Missy White, Yell Queen, represented the spirited at Samohi and was in charge of the Valentine committee.

Under the new constitution composed in 1974, 25 Representatives-at-Large were elected and assigned five "Rep." classes, to which they reported once a week. They let students in on Cabinet's activities, brought students' suggestions to Cabinet meetings, and took special polls in an attempt to please more students. Thanks to these individuals, pancake breakfast tickets were sold (a blessing?), this book was publicized, and music groups were plugged.

The Reps attended weekly Cabinet meetings at which they each had one-half vote. At their own House gatherings, each was entitled to one full vote. Every student was invited to these meetings and had full voting privileges.

The Reps were successful in increasing student awareness, even though at times the communication was sometimes onesided, and a little discouraging.

All in all, the Rep-at-Large system was a step forward in the communication between Vikes and their student government.

The SAMOHI

VOL. LXI, NO. 10 SANTA MONICA, CALIFORNIA 90405 FRI., NOV. 22, 1974

Against enormous odds, the intrepid staff somehow managed to grind out the weekly edition of the SAMOHI. The dedicated editors, photographers, and reporters, with (or despite?) the help of long-suffering adviser Larry Knuth, fought, struggled, and faked their way through countless deadlines in an effort to keep Vikings informed.

Looking back over the year, it is impossible to forget Iris, who tried to maintain her humor and her dignity while locking her keys in her car, arguing with the cub editors, and betting against the SAMOHI in journalism competition. Then there's Adam, our staff celebrity - he was the 200,000th person to walk into the library. Adam was always good for a fight, carrying on printed debates, when he wasn't getting his picture in the paper.

Mark, the staff's token jock, kept his motorcycle tucked away in the journalism room and spent the year in a desperate quest for just one worthwhile news story. Dennis never failed to keep everyone laughing and never stopped smiling, even when deadlines came and went. Julie searched throughout the year for a cause, any cause - her fondest hope was to be controversial. Pringle and his appetite were legendary, and in between trips to Jack-in-the-Box, he composed epic 18-inch news stories that always got edited to 5½".

Glenn was famous for his inimitable political essays, while Marc was known for his tributes to Elton John and Judaism. Jenny, Eve, and Carol quietly chatted all week, miraculously coming up with columns in the nick of time. Ramsey and Allan were all but invisible, turning in 3" sports stories and quickly disappearing again.

Eddie, Kirk, Kris, and Mike - four of the craziest people you'll ever meet - were so busy decorating the walls they had a tendency to forget deadlines. Kris had the best attendance on the staff, too bad he was scheduled for P.E. that period! Kirk Bachman, the curly-haired boy wonder, worshipped Roger Ramjet and Super Chicken, and got his kicks by walking in trash cans. Mike quietly changed to his tennis shorts and practiced his backhand, while Eddie somehow kept his patience.

Then there were the good (?) times - like slurping spaghetti at the Noodle Co., tying Kirk to Knuth's chair, those endless journalism seminars, and those exciting evenings with the gang at print shop. Julie, Mark, and Kirk will always treasure the lessons they learned about finance and football from an eccentric alumni . . .

The spring semester brought some new inductees to the madhouse, who joined right in. All in all, its been a year the mild-mannered reporters on the SAMOHI won't (or can't) soon forget.

'74-'75 Nautilus Staff

It all began in the summer of '74, when a few staff members met in relative quiet to scheme and plot the year ahead. By the time school had started, the ice had been broken and things got moving. At 1:00 in the morning the day of a deadline, things had a tendency to get pretty weird. Like the time L.K. strapped a Dixie cup to his head and spun around in his chair, yelling "Bananas!". Or when Kathy Q. would get that panicky look in her eyes, and try to I.D. those anonymous group photos. Could we ever forget Hugo and Luigi; pizza and hot chocolate; the motorized Italian meatball; shivering in Foster's parking lot in the pre-dawn, and the look on Knuth's face when we interrupted his morning shave; or our collective trip to the Feed Bag, where Corine developed a sudden Southern accent and a craving for sasparilla? Then there was Janice, who got us pages and pages of ads with her smile and sweet blue eyes; Karen and Kim taking revenge on their teachers; and Judy meeting her deadlines on crutches. Kathy H. quietly organized the senior class, and everyone swore that underneath Kent's calm exterior lurked a raging animal. Leslie was the devious mastermind behind the Great Knuth Kidnap. No one knew how, but Skip managed to put the ads together, despite Mark, Judy, and Susan sneaking in the pictures. Terry managed to convince everyone to see her side of every argument - strangely enough, she was usually right. Jenny faithfully followed Dennis's instructions, typing and re-typing but keeping her smile. A deadline just wasn't a deadline without Dennis, his maniac sense of humor, and a dash of "juice". Bob was always underfoot, stealing licorice and Big Macs, and Eddie always had an optimistic word (or dirty look) to encourage us. Julie churned out miles of propaganda and learned about cheerleading in depth. Phil flirted with Susan all day, but never failed to get his pictures in the day after deadline. Kris never missed a class, unfortunately he was enrolled in Chemistry that period. Mark maintained his savoir-faire and unshakable calm, and over it all ruled Cindy with an iron hand and stern eye, cleverly disguised by a characteristic panic.

The new semester brought some brave new souls who eyed us warily and joined in the spirit of chaos, laughter, and hard work that marked the '74-'75 Nautilus staff.

Members of the Viking Chorale entertained Samohi at Fall and Christmas Concerts, and added to the festivities at Graduation ceremonies. Along with other school music groups, they vocalized at the annual "Stairway to the Stars" show in Spring. The Viking Chorale expressed themselves in a festival, where they were graded for their "tonal quality." Listeners all agreed, their "tonal quality" was superb!

Madrigals

Madrigal singers earned their place in this prestigious group of vocalists by passing tough auditions. Those lucky enough to be accepted found hard work was just beginning, as they commenced a strenuous year of rehearsals and performances.

This winter the Madrigals sang at the Fox and Hounds restaurant, and at the Broadway department store. They joined forces with the Viking Chorale for the Christmas Concert in Barnum Hall, and the "Stairway to the Stars" performance at the Civic Auditorium. The Madrigals also entertained grads and their families at graduation exercises.

The group also journeyed to Riverside in the spring for a festival.

Girls' Glee

Girls' Glee expanded their membership to include forty-seven singers. The new membership caused a slight problem; the group found themselves short of robes. The girls went to work to raise money, and sold enough suckers and baked goods to buy the robes.

The Girls' Glee performed three-part music from different time periods, and entertained audiences at St. Augustine's Church, the Women's Club in Pacific Palisades, and during the "Stairway to the Stars" at the Civic Auditorium.

In addition, the girls went caroling at Century City, and competed against other girls' glees from all over Southern California at a festival in the spring.

Viking Orchestra

Samohi's talented classical musicians made this year's Orchestra "One of the strongest orchestras we've had at Samohi," according to conductor Gerald Anderson. They tuned up frequently throughout the year, with a wide variety of musical offerings.

Along with the other musical groups, the Orchestra entertained the student body at the October and Christmas concerts. During the spring, they were particularly busy, executing some well played notes at the "Stairway to the Stars" show and at a Regional Festival, where Samohi has traditionally received a superior rating. Gathering together with the choral organizations, the Orchestra played at the Spring Concert and featured soloists Reuel Ash and Steve Doucette at the February Concert.

The Chamber Orchestra is a smaller, more specialized group of musicians, whose speciality is baroque and classical music.

The Serenaders were a highly talented new group which performed brassy jazz and dance pieces. They played with the Band, but were primarily a stage group. Under the leadership of Mr. Zachman, the group added a light contemporary beat to the concerts in the Spring.

Delians

Samohi students with a 3.5 or better grade point average became members of Delians, a scholastic honor society.

Delians elected a few officers, among them President Reuel Ash, Vice-President Glenn Butterman and Secretary Ginger Adam.

Spring officers were President Ginger Adam, and Vice President Janet Watanabe.

Delians chose Knott's Berry Farm as the destination for their annual field trip, and an educational time was had by all.

Drama Club

The applause-crazed thespians in the Drama Club devoted their frenzied efforts to putting together the year's four major productions. Club members acted, directed, argued, sewed, hammered, painted, laughed, and gossiped their way through the plays. Members nobly swallowed their individual star complexes to do whatever they could for the good of the show.

Due to the dedication of these stage-struck people, the productions this year were an unprecedented artistic, if not commercial, success. The year began with an informal, in-the-open presentation of "As You Like It". Next on the program was "The Night Thoreau Spent In Jail", which featured a live (and vicious) chicken. Ibsen's social commentary, "A Doll's House," began the spring season, and "Teahouse of the August Moon" ended the year with some provocative Japanese dialogue.

In addition to the regular productions, members worked in cooperation with the music, dance, and art departments for the Fine Arts Festival, and produced, directed, and starred in an evening of one-act plays.

For their finale, club members gathered for an evening of uninhibited revelry to hand out their annual awards for dramatic excellence and other things.

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players:
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages. At first the infant,
Mewling and puking in the nurse's arm's,
And then the whining schoolboy, with his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail
Unwilling to school . . .

Orchesis

Dancers are a creative group, and they joined together to promote the arts in a class called Orchesis. Members, both girls and boys, met as a class fourth period, and as a group after school and at lunch. The group was interested in all aspects of creative endeavor, exploring different forms of music, movement, art, and drama. Headquarters for the group was the dance studio, where amid plants and strains of Bartok, one could find members dancing, working, or chatting with mentor Marilyn Allen.

Orchesis members went on field trips to the L.A. County Museum of Art, UCLA, and had a Valentine's Day picnic at Barnsdall Park.

The dancers produced and performed in a spring concert that featured original dance compositions.

Lonely Hearts Club - Carol Schramm, Liz Raeder, Martha O'Meara, Adina Stern, Yvonne Lucas.

Lonely Heart's Club

The Lonely Heart Club was a contender for the most unique group on campus. Members met frequently with the avowed intention of "bringing happiness to creative minds." President Yvonne Lucas, along with the pleasure-seeking members, planned parties, and worked to promote school activities. One member commented, "We've achieved great recognition in the field of human and personal relationships. There's a lot of warm people in the club."

Agape

The dictionary defines "agape" as a "self-giving, loyal concern that freely accepts another and seeks his good." The members of Agape worked to spread this philosophy of brotherly love to the community and other Vikings. President Alice Boring and Vice President Reuben Camacho, with the help of faculty advisor Bob McLaughlin, took their organization Christmas caroling on the Mall and in convalescent homes. The group also distributed Easter baskets of fruit to retirement homes.

In addition to their goodwill efforts, Agape sponsored speakers and films on biblical prophesy and the gospel. The active and dedicated participants built a beautiful float in the shape of a dove, the symbol for peace, for Homecoming.

Sons of Liberty

The Sons of Liberty consisted of a dozen active, publicly minded members, dedicated to furthering the ideals of liberty and patriotism. Participants were responsible for having the Pledge of Allegiance changed to 8:30 A.M., when it could be heard by the entire student body. Club members also worked toward keeping the school's gates open all day and having the air conditioning turned off when the school buildings were not in use.

A speech contest, in which Vikings and students from nearby schools discussed why patriotism had died in America, was the main project sponsored by the Sons. Three $25 savings bonds were awarded to those who had the "gift of the golden tongue."

In a more frivolous mood, the club organized a picnic for the entire population of Samohi.

The Forensics Club was one of the most active on campus this year. Members met in competition on a state and national level and met resounding success, as evidenced by the number of awards they received. At the end of the first semester, members claimed one sweepstakes and numerous other awards and honors. This year's debate team was widely acclaimed as the best in Samohi history. The subject under discussion for the whole year was "that the United States should significantly alter the procedure for selecting the presidential and vice-presidential candidates".

Besides debating, members also competed individually in the catagories of: original oratory, dramatic interpretation, program reading, oratorical interpretation, extemporaneous speaking, and story-telling.

Individually, Forensics Club members did as well as the debate team. In two tournaments, there were a total of eleven Samohi students in the finals, and in both cases Samohi captured first place. Collectively, Samohi speakers were awarded a second place sweepstakes.

Current Affairs Club

People with something to say met on Wednesday to disagree with other members of the Current Affairs Club. The club's membership was wide open, fluctuating every week. Members came when the topic interested them, and there was certainly no lack of fascinating topics. Members talked - and argued - about homosexuality and its place in society, prostitution, women's liberation, legalization of marijuana, and offshore oil drilling in the Santa Monica Bay.

Sailing Club

Hearty sea-going types gathered on Mondays in the Sailing Club, captained by Jon Silver, and supervised by sponsors Mr. Cornett and Mr. Yendes. The group benefitted from first hand instruction by both sponsors, who used their private sailboats as unique visual aids. The club went on short sails in local waters, and received education on sailing background.

Ski Club

Samohi's hotdoggers took off to the slopes with the Ski Club. The group journeyed to Mammoth along with other high schools, and permitted sponsors Miss Merrick and Mrs. Glassmoyer to tag along. To help finance these excursions, the group sold suckers and collected admission to ski films. The group was entitled to special rates, and a three-day ski weekend, including transportation, room, and two meals a day cost members only $49.00.

By mid ski season, the Ski Club could boast a low mortality rate. Members came back from the hills with limbs intact, although one skiier temporarily injured a thumb.

Black Students' Union

The Black Students' Union was active this year promoting black pride and identity. The thirty involved members met every week to plan their successful projects. Among other activities, the B.S.U. delivered toys to ten underprivileged children on Christmas Eve, held a fashion show, sponsored a band in Barnum Hall, and attended a lecture given by a black lawyer. The B.S.U. observed Black History Week by broadcasting information about famous black people on the morning announcements. Members of the B.S.U. took on officers from the Santa Monica Police Department in a hotly contested basketball game. In addition, they chose a "Miss B.S.U." in a beauty contest in Barnum Hall. The girls, all members of B.S.U., were chosen on the basis of their performance in the categories of talent, swim suit, and evening gowns of African design.

Girls' Track

Sharon McNiff, a 1968 Olympic track star, was the driving force behind the Track Club. Fifteen dedicated girls, inspired by a speech given by Ms. McNiff, met twice weekly after school for intense work outs in all track events except pole vaulting. The girls worked tirelessly in preparation for their three meets and in anticipation of CIF competition in 1975-76. The girls trained alongside the Boys' Track Team, using the same facilities and no doubt providing a little friendly competition.

Math Club

Memebers of the Math Contest Club represented Samohi at six tournaments during the year. They competed in problems of logic and mathematical ability like "Mad Hatter," "Leap Frog," and "Chalk Talk." There were thirty members all told and a few of these were sent to each contest.

The club was extremely successful, winning an overall first place at one contest, a fourth place at another and two individual gold medals - all in the first semester alone.

Radio Club

One of the Radio Club's goals this year was to qualify every member for a novice FCC license for ham radio operation. To this end, members learned Morse Code, studied radio theory, saw movies and worked with their own equipment.

For club participants, the charm of operating a ham radio is the ability to communicate with people all over the world.

Samohi was well protected in case of national disaster - our ham radio operators would have been able to relay emergency calls and pick up information if the situation had arisen.

Biology Honor Society

The Biology Honor Society was probably Samohi's foremost authority on tiger beetles. The group wrote an extensive study on the "Tiger Beetles of the Genus Cicindela Found in Southern California with an Artificial Key," for publication in the scientific journal Cicindela. Members travelled to Death Valley, Santa Barbara, and San Diego to research the paper.

During the course of the year, the club journeyed to the Los Angeles County Museum of Science and Industry, UCLA's Bio-Med Library, Scripps Institute and even Tijuana to further their knowledge.

One way in which they raised money for a scholarship given to an outstanding biology student was by operating a pie-throwing booth at Homecoming.

Film Club

Members of the Film Club spent the year racing around town in odd costumes, doing puzzling things and, incidently, having a great time while putting together movies and documentaries. They learned film techniques like animation and pixilation, and put them to use when making their epic "Chess Match." This flick was about politics in the future in a science fiction setting, but without the typically phoney ray guns or green-eyed monsters. Like all of the Film Club's productions, the "Chess Match" was totally funded, directed, written and acted out by the campus film "freaks" led by head film fanatic, Paul Boylan.

Film Club - alphabetically: H. Arakawa, R. Benson, M. Boylan, P. Boylan, D. Buchanan, A. Crown, G. Davis, R Dobrin, M. Griffith, J. Hartlove, J. Ho, L. Hodgson, A. Karklyn, T. McGroarty, M. Netzen, J. Parfrey, D. Robertson, J. Santos, J. Santos, M. Stanley, L. Stehle.

Video Tech.

The Video Technicians met every Monday to plan their next creative film project. They taped sports events, ASB meetings and school presentations during the year and showed them later on the campus T.V.'s The Video crew produced an orientation tape for new students and video taped the Theater Arts's version of "The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail."

Club members were also a part of the proposal for the special Bicenntenial Historical Center; they aspired to do the necessary filming.

In addition, they had an eye to future job possibilities and continually investigated the fields of T.V. and radio by touring the stations of CBS, Theta Cable, KTCA and KCRW.

Stage Crew

The indispensable Stage Crew kept things running smoothly behind the scenes during Samohi's stage productions. This capable group was in charge of the confusion backstage, and routinely handled set construction, lighting, curtains and the thousands of details that make a successful show.

The stage crew worked on Theater Arts' productions, musical presentations, and the Fashion Show in the cafeteria, as well as other sundry assemblies.

Stage crew met as a class but qualified as a club since participants devoted much free time to their work, meeting before and after school and during special presentations.

Jewish Students' Organization

Jewish students on Samohi came together in the Jewish Students' Organization under the guidance of Mr. Barney Rosen "not to develop a religious organization, but to find cultural similarities and exchange viewpoints about the future of Judaism." The group participated in discussions, saw slides of Israel, and listened to the Israeli consulate. Mr. Rosen contributed significantly by giving Hebrew lessons to students interested in reinforcing their cultural identity.

The enthusiastic students worked to unify Jews and to learn about the ancient traditions and philosophies of Judaism.

German Club

German students gathered together in the German Club to enjoy the language and customs of Germany. The group wrote and produced a German play based on Faust. When not working on the play, German Club members held a modified Oktoberfest at lunch time. The Oktoberfest lacked an important German ingredient: the free-flowing beer, but students enjoyed themselves all the same. To discover why Germans are so fond of food, the group went to a German restaurant to learn firsthand.

Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Francais got together with the French classes and Ms. Sherri Pierce and Mrs. Joy Koufopoulis, the club's sponsors, to produce Molier's "L'Avare" in Barnum Hall. Members who worked hard on acting, constructing sets and costumes made it a successful play. By acting in French, students improved their pronunciation and comprehension of the romantic language, as well as increasing their appreciation of French literature.

The avowed purpose of the French Club was "to encourage an interest in French language and culture". Club members accomplished this goal with their many activities. Members went on a field trip to see famed mime Marcel Marceau, and viewed the French films playing in the area. Students whipped up a gourmet banquet of French cuisine, and the less culinary - minded made filmstrips in French. Club members participated in a Christmas program exclusively for French students.

Multi-lingual Paper

The Multi-lingual Paper was published monthly by students dedicated to bringing about understanding between the many different cultures represented at Samohi. The students were inspired by sponsor Mr. Berkeley Blatz's lecture on the Guadalupe Treaty, which assured Spanish speaking people in the U.S. that all printed publications, laws, and school texts would be available in their language. As of 1975, Samohi was the only school in the Bay Area attempting to fulfill that promise.

The paper represented not only Spanish cultures, but encouraged contributions from all speakers of a foreign language.

The paper achieved many admirable goals; it informed students and their families about school activities, it encouraged written expression in a foreign language, it provided students with an opportunity to display their creativity in poetry, cartoons, and short stories, and it gave people a chance to understand other countries and ethnic backgrounds.

Mecha

Mexican-American students met in Mecha, presided over by President Frank Hernandez. Mecha members held bake sales and car washes to raise scholarships for members. In April they chose a Mecha Queen at a dance; the proceeds went to their scholarship fund.

In the fall, members saw films about life in America for Chicanos. Speakers from SMC and farmworkers came to discuss the strike against Gallo. Members grew steadily from 45 people in the beginning of the year, to 65 in the spring. Club members celebrated the Christmas holidays with two gala parties.

Club Hispanico

Club Hispanico was an active organization for Latin-American students who wanted to get involved culturally and socially in their heritage. While membership didn't grow this year, participation did, and Club Hispanico was able to plan a very successful year.

The Club raised money for three scholarships of $50.00 each by holding two dances, one in December and one in May. For the May dance club members chose a Club Hispanico Queen to reign over the festivities.

For Cinco de Mayo, members whipped up a feast of Mexican food, and worked in co-operation with Mecha to plan a Mexican art exhibit.

The Great Western Council of Boy Scouts established a Career Explorer Post on Samohi. For a nominal fee, Vikings attended four out of seventeen seminars on careers ranging from medicine to airline occupations to oceanography to law enforcement, and many fields in between. Members were also eligible to attend Scout special events like ski trips, Scout Olympics, and road rallies.

This was the second year of the Explorers' Post at Samohi and it claimed 120 members. Despite its affiliation with the Boy Scouts, the club was open to both sexes.

Chess Club

Every day at lunch, the dedicated masterminds of the Chess Club gathered to plot attacks and defenses, and enjoy the intricacies of this interesting game. Chess Club members didn't confine themselves to playing the game as we know it; they engaged in the subtleties of exotic forms like "Siamese" or "Monster".

The Chess Club sent seven members to a major interscholastic tournament and had several high ranking players, including Chris Delfaro who was one of the "top ten" chess players under 16 years old in the United States.

They also tested their mastery of the game by competing in inter-club tournaments.

Girls' League

Due to the dedication of Wendy Sackett, the Girls' League enjoyed a rebirth this year. They strove for civic improvement, running canned food drives during the holidays for the needy and lending a hand whenever needed on campus or in the community.

The League members did not neglect their social life in their philanthropic pursuits - the Friendship Committee planned social activities, a Talent Show (that is, they helped the Boy's League), a powder puff track meet, and a special Bicentenial Day.

Members of Girls' League offer helpful hints.

Boys' League

The Boy's League ran into a little guidance trouble at the beginning of the year - evidently they could not find a faculty member brave enough to become their sponsor. But after Christmas, League members got it together sufficiently to plan their annual (and notorious) Talent Show. For the past four years, the administration has threatened to cancel the show due to, shall we say, "high spirits" of those involved. Last year, for example, the program was plagued with a number of streakers. However, the administration grew benevolent and, against their better judgement, let the show go on with some restrictions - the performance was held at lunchtime in Barnum Hall, rather than the usual evening showtime.

School Service

Some of the more public spirited students at Samohi went into School Service in various capacities. These volunteers received little pay and partial credit - they worked mostly for the experience and for the benefit of Samohi.

Twelve students worked in the cafeteria for twenty minutes at lunch, serving food and operating the cash registers. One student put in time behind the counter at Vike's Inn before school and during lunch. Two students each period ran errands, answered phones, and generally made themselves useful in the Counseling Office.

Other students volunteered their services in the Nurse's Office, the Math and Language Labs, the Science Labs, and lent hands to the gardeners and custodians.

Graduates

Class Board

Graduation time at last! Now the Seniors can sit back and take a relaxed look at those frenzied years they spent in high school.

Once upon a time they started out as Sophomores, scared little kids with a lot of enthusiasm and even some idealism. Remember how enormous the school looked then? But the Class of '75 stilled their quaking hearts and went right to work. The first Homecoming float was great - even if it didn't really look like the blueprints. Oh well, it was fun anyway. Then the class hired themselves out as janitors for the '73 Convention. Anything for a buck, right guys?

The Sophomores were Juniors now, infinitely more sophisticated and worldly-wise. By now it was clear that the Class of '75 was really on the move - it wasn't clear where they were going but they were definitely on their way! This time the float came out better, earning a first place with a giant Viking helmet they carried two miles down Pico Blvd. They tied the Sophomores for first place in the paper drive. The Class of '75 showed their concern for the welfare of the community by holding a "Play Day" for educationally handicapped children who participated in supervised games and activities. They also held a Christmas party for children with musclar dystrophy.

As Seniors they achieved the dazzling pinnacle of success. No longer children, by now they were almost jaded by the variety of experiences at Samohi. Louis Robin was elected to guide the Seniors down the home stretch to graduation. Under his guidance the Class planned a slide show that compiled all three years of educational experience into one awesome nostalgia trip. The Class of '75 finally got the hang of float building, and captured the coveted Sweepstakes.

At the end of three years, the Seniors had managed to save $650.00 for their traditional Senior gift by selling football programs and concessions at basketball games.

So ends the Senior story. The Nautilus staff and everyone the Seniors are leaving behind at Samohi would like to wish the Class of '75 the best of futures!

is to get experience out of ideas.

We know that men are not equal in their native gifts nor in their motivations, and it follows that they will not be equal in their achievements. That is why we have given equality by opportunity such a central role in our social philosophy. "We may not all hit home runs," but every man should have his chance at bat.

- John W. Gardner

Principal W. Terry Pearson

The theme of the 1975 Nautilus is "Directions." I am proud to say that Samohi is on the right course! I make this statement because of the positive and cooperative trend I see in the attitudes of our students and the continued dedication of our faculty and staff.

The future direction of our school must be concerned with the expansion of opportunities for our students and a continued emphasis on fostering an environment that encourages student involvement. Both of these have been evident this year. Neither would have been evident without the leadership provided by the Senior Class and the commitment of our total staff.

As I reflect about the 1974-75 school year, several significant items come to minds. One is the outstanding achievement of our students. The others are the broad scope of our curriculum, extra-curricular activities and special programs. I am confident that this trend will continue.

The future has a fascination that is unmatched. From man's earliest beginnings he has wondered about tomorrow. What will tomorrow mean for Samohi? To me it will mean a school that continues to be in the forefront as one of the top schools in the country. It will mean a school where students and faculty work together and have a sense of pride in their accomplishments. And it will mean a school where experimentation, innovation and free exchange of ideas contribute to an educational program of unlimited opportunities for all students.

Sincerely,

W. Terry Pearson

Vice Principal
Porter I. Leach

Mr. Porter I. Leach, Vice Principal of Student Activities, has watched the students of Samohi grow and change over the years. He sees the trend toward more student involvement in planning and participating in special activities. Mr. Leach is optimistic about the directions in which high school students are heading. "Students are becoming more positive in their attitudes toward school, faculty and student government. I believe that this trend will continue for some time and will strengthen all of the student activity programs."

Mr. Leach is actively involved in many student activities. He works in close cooperation with the students who put the newspaper together and the folks who brought you this yearbook. He is the administrative sponsor of ASB and supervises (with friendly encouragement) the Monday morning meetings of Cabinet.

Superintendant

Vice Principals

Miss Beverly J. Waters, Vice Principal-Curricular Services, sees as the aim of her office "a reaffirmation of the need for moral and civic education." Miss Waters maintained a constant evaluation of Samohi's academic offerings to make sure that they met the needs and interests of the students. This year, she shifted more emphasis to technical-vocational training, including the association of the high school with a Regional Occupational Program. Miss Waters had a receptive ear to the needs of the student and community, and was open to positive change.

Mr. Sandor Rosenfield, Vice Principal-Pupil Personnel Services, worked to make high school education "a period of personal growth and development, experimentations, of expanding one's mind, one's sense of self, and one's appreciation of others."

Mr. Rosenfield's aim was to broaden horizons. To do this he had at his disposal the vast resources of activities and facilities available at Samohi. He worked in close cooperation with the community at large to bring students the widest option of opportunities possible.

The Dean's office has gone through continual change in the past few years. The role of the Dean used to be strictly discipline oriented. "Today the emphasis is on assisting students with problems, and offering alternatives . . . ," says Dean Richard Turner.

Both the Deans saw a major shift in students' attitudes. "In the past three years there has been a tremendous change from dissidence to cooperation - kids are enjoying school more," reported Dean Mel Sevland

The problems that crossed the Deans' desks were different. Truancy was on the rise, but interracial conflicts have declined.

Jonie Lewis, Child Welfare and Attendance, worked to achieve a tighter control over registration. The attendance office was more alert to out-of-district registration, requiring proof of residence.

The biggest change in the attendance and child welfare department was the anticipated new computer system. Each counselor and dean had a mini-computer in their offices. With a flick of a switch, a student's file appeared on the screen. So in the future, your life may get flashed before someone else's eyes.

Secretarial Staff

Samohi's dedicated secretarial staff attended to the many and varied details that kept our high school moving. With the assistance of a helpful new computer, the secretaries kept track of the needs, wants, successes, and failures of more than 3,000 students and a few hundred faculty members. With all this information at their fingertips, the secretaries were some of the best qualified observers of the Samo scene. The consensus - "Students are more curious now . . . more involved and interested . . . they relate better."

Social Studies

The Social Studies department expanded the opportunities available to Samohi students. Several new classes were offered this year, fulfilling standard history and government requirements. Students could choose from a wide assortment of which Consumer Law and Economics, Minorities, and Law in a Changing Society were only a few choices. Class curriculum was supplemented by use of the department's collection of video tapes. A Speaker's Bureau brought controversial speakers to Samohi, providing students with the opportunity to hear both sides of an issue. Students learned some facts in the complicated offshore oil drilling argument from a representative of the Environmental Impact Study, and an employee of Arco.

The Social Studies department sponsored a Career Day, and provided interested students with the opportunity to participate in a model United Nations program, and a Constitutional Rights Foundation Seminar.

Science

Samohi's Science Department had the unique advantage of being on the shores of a giant laboratory. The Oceanography and Marine Biology classes made full use of this opportunity to conduct a thorough and fascinating study of marine science. These classes also maintained salt water aquaria in which one could find several exotic forms of sea life, like the elusive Hypsypops robicunda, octopi, and even some Carassius auratus (or as we know them - goldfish!).

In addition to the usual high school science classes, Samohi offered the opportunity to investigate the heavens with Astronomy and Astro-Physics. The Science Department hoped to include Animal Behavior, Geology, Botany, and Advanced Physiology in their curricular very soon.

Perhaps the strongest asset of this department were the instructors. They all taught their particular specialities, and their interest and ability made the learning experience an interesting one.

Math

The Math Department upheld Samohi's reputation for superior teaching; our mathematics teachers were the strongest factor of this department. Of the twelve teachers, ten have their Master's degree and two have earned two Master's in Math. They were interested in what they taught and this interest, communicated to the students, is what made their methods so effective.

Largely due to the cooperation within the department and the capability of the instructors, as well as the interest among students, Samohi was able to offer a wide range of varied math classes. Liberal Arts Math was available as an alternative to geometry for university bound students, while the mathematically minded went in for Calculus and Modern Algebra. Classes in Computer Science and Statistics further broadened horizons for the interested student.

English

The English Department offered an amazing variety of courses; there was one to suit every taste! This year several new options were added: Bilingual Literature - an excellent class for Spanish speaking students; Theater Arts 5-6 - for budding thespians; and Discussion and Debate - which supplied skillful speakers for the debate squad. These classes, along with Ancient Drama, Shakespeare, Creative Film, Reading Improvement, and Literature of the Southwest, to name a few, were electives which satisfied English requirements. No chance to get bored with such a vast selection of interests!

Rock Poetry was one of the more popular English offerings. The class studied

In order to underwrite the cost of the Theater Arts' "As You Like It" production during the school day, the English Department held a Book Fair and sold tickets to a benefit performance at nearby Morgan Theater.

The department's teaching methods have changed steadily over the years. Instead of simply teaching grammar, English instructors are teaching grammatical terminology through communication and logical expression. Imaginative electives are painless ways to impart expression.

Industrial Arts Department

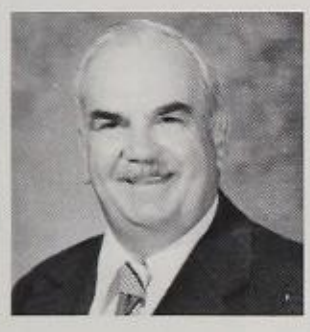
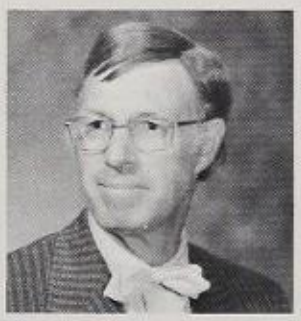
Thomas Johnson



Victor Brooks

David Hansen



Owen Harrow

One of the ways in which Samohi met the needs of the community was with education in the Industrial Arts. The growing call for industrial training has resulted in an extensive Industrial Arts program at Samo. Over the past four years, increasing emphasis has shifted to the industrial arts, as more and more students opted for a practical education.

Samohi's Industrial Arts Department is one of the best in the country. One of the reasons for this is the quality of the staff, who all have their Master's degrees. Another factor contributing to the department's superiority is the funds available from the federal government and the Santa Monica School District to help further industrial education.

Languages

The Language Department was one of the most modern and progressive in the area. It was equipped with a Language Lab with eighty individual listening units.

The French, Spanish, and German classes presented plays during the year, which were enormously helpful in enabling a student to understand the language. Spanish students published a bi-lingual newspaper. The French classes went on field trips, saw French films, and sampled some French cuisine to help them get the feel of the language.

The English-as-a-Second-Language classes gained momentum this year, with the publication of the paper, and the increased enthusiasm of the students.

Music

The Music department sponsored Samohi's musical performing groups. Music students performed at Samohi's traditional October, Christmas, and Spring concerts. Among the performing groups were Orchestra, Viking Choral, Girls' Glee, and Madrigals.

The Band performed at our football games and pep rallies, and the Orchestra played a farewell to seniors at graduation exercises.

The Music department sent various groups to festivals around Southern California, where they performed and were rated.

Art

Samohi's Art department offered sixteen separate courses for aspiring artists. Course content ranged from basic design principles to specialized art forms like ceramics or photography.

An important element of the Art department was Roberts Art Gallery. Samohi was privileged to maintain the only professional high school art gallery in the West. The gallery's aim was to bring the best available expression of contemporary art to the community. This goal was reached with exhibits like the evironmental design showing which covered the ceiling in the History Building with brightly colored geometric forms.

The Art department worked in cooperation with the music, dance, and drama departments to put on the Spring Fine Arts Festival.

Girls' P.E. has moved away from the traditional class offerings, branching out into new and interesting alternatives. The department offered a course to please everyone, including Dance, Fencing, Bowling, Archery, Volleyball, Tennis, and Football. Specialty courses like Drill and Orchesis were offered for the devoted sportswoman. Varsity Team Sports was begun for girls with advanced competitive skills.

For all students on campus there were Intramural Tournaments for tennis, volleyball and archery. They provided students and teachers with a chance to get involved and compete in different sports.

Boys ' P.E. shifted its emphasis a bit to include "more activities a student can use throughout his life." Co-ed Golf, Backpacking, and Bicycling were new courses that reflected this emphasis. Popular carry-overs from last year included Co-ed Scuba and Skin Diving, which enabled students to get their Diving Certification. A new class this year was European Field Sports, which included Australian Football, field hockey, and soccer.

Samohi's P.E. department has the added advantage of not being confined to the campus. They have made full use of nearby beaches and mountains, widening the classroom and learning experience.

Inter-departmental Coaches

Several of the hardier male faculty members lent a hand at coaching in the Boys' P.E. department. These men held jobs teaching in other departments, but spent a few hours in the depths of the Boys' Gym, coaching their own particular specialities.

Drivers' Education Department

The Automobile Club in Southern California made a survey of high school drivers, and found that Samohi students were more responsible behind the wheel than other high school students. The reason for Samohi's good reputation lies with its Drivers' Education department. The department, under the guidance of chairman Mr. George Laux, featured an extensive eighteen week program taught by experienced and qualified instructors. Driver's Ed. classes studies the California Vehicle Code, first aid, the major causes of accidents, and the harmful effects of alcohol and narcotics. Classroom work was supplemented by visual aids like "Red Asphalt", a film designed to thoroughly frighten the novice driver. Representatives from the Highway Patrol, insurance agencies and alcohol rehabilitation centers shared their knowledge with individual classes.

Business Education Department

Samohi has traditionally provided an excellent vocational skills education, and the Business department this year was no exception. A motivated student could graduate after completing a business major and be well-prepared for a job in the world of business. Four semesters of business classes at Samohi qualified a student to go directly into advanced accounting courses at S.M.C.

As a supplement to basic business, accounting, or secretarial courses, a student could take classes in merchandising and sales.

Samohi Business teacher, Miss Johanna Stutsman felt that a background in business education is a good one. "There are many avenues open to the student - it's an open-ended field."

The emphasis in Special Education was in vocational training. The students enrolled in Special Ed. "learned while they learned", and developed marketable skills. The students made contracts with nearby business people to perform tasks like packaging garment decorations or mailing catalogues, and were paid for their services. In addition, each student was involved in a "Work Study" program in which they were given credit toward graduation for helping the gardeners, working in the cafeteria, or in jobs outside of school.

Students in Special Ed. were involved in helping others in their community. They collected aluminum can tabs to purchase a seeing eye dog, and rallied contributions from Vikes so that Samo could become a life member in the East African Wildlife Society.

Home Economics Department

Helen O'Conner

Kim Berney

Diane Janssen

The Home Economics department offered an innovative new class this year: Bachelor Living. The class was open to both sexes, and featured units on Consumer Education, Apartment Selection, Family and Personal Relationships, and Food preparation. The department sponsored a Christmas boutique featuring the handicrafts of the students in clothing classes. The boutique netted a total of $400; each girl profitted from her own sewing. To meet the need for vocational training, some girls learned power stitching, useful in the garment industry.

Textbook Office

Marian Fernandez, Betty Metzler, Thomas Sturgeon

The Textbook Office got a welcome helping hand with the addition of Marian Fernandez. Ms. Fernandez's specialty was retrieving lost books, or if the books couldn't be found, persuading reluctant students to pay up. During the past three years 2,500 books disappeared, at an average cost of $4.00 per book. The textbook office is in charge of the care and distribution of 50,000 textbooks a year. People in the textbook office were familiar to careless students; they also supervised the Lost and Found.

In the Search for Knowledge, Health and Hunger...

Librarians- John Robinson, Ruth Mallatt

Library Clerks- Marie Abbott, Helen Mason

The Library is the center of student life, and this year the librarians made it an even more efficient learning aid. One of the helpful innovations was the addition of new librarian, Mr. John Robinson, who gave studious Vikes invaluable help in finding reference sources. Another addition was the establishment of an "Absolute Silence" corner. Samohi's library provides an exceptional freedom of choice and there are plans to continue expanding. The librarians hope to add more audio-visual and micro-film materials, and increase the selection of existing books and magazines.

The Nurses, Mrs. Ruth Sayre and Mrs. Anne Bystrom, with the aid of clerk, Mrs. Irene Wohlers, dispatched their special brand of care and concern daily. Samohi's noble nurses instructed Vikings on the care of their minds and bodies. The Nurses' Office sponsored a weekly rap group, "The Thursday Group," where troubled students could talk out their problems. They also offered a Smoking Clinic, an alternative to suspension for students caught indulging in the nicotine habit on campus. Mrs. Sayre and Mrs. Bystrom informed Girls' P.E. classes about self-examination methods for detecting breast cancer, a critical factor in treating this dread disease. The nurses also dispatched band-aids and smiles in their daily routine of first-aid.

Anne Bystrom

Ruth Sayre

Samohi's vivacious, efficient Cafeteria women, headed by Mrs. Eva Johnson, managed to prepare the multitude of food needed to feed Samo's student body. This year's menu included such tempting rarities as pizza, burgers, and pepper steaks, as well as soft-serve ice cream and chicken. This year's student body worked to add a healthier variety of food to the vending machines. All in all, the Cafeteria women were working for you.

The security personnel moved toward a closer watch on school activities. An increase of patrol, both in and around Samohi, helped keep our school safe and trouble-free. "Operation Clean Sweep" reduced truancy by rounding up aimless Vikings and bringing them to nearby John Rossi Youth Center for counseling. Samohi security guards stepped up their campus patrol and worked to prevent unauthorized outsiders from entering the grounds.

The four gardeners had the awesome task of caring for Samohi's vast acreage. In addition to tending the "greens," they set up the equipment for athletic events. This year the gardeners constructed a welcome patio on the northwest corner of the Administration Building, and participated in the annual Arbor Day tree planting. Head gardener Jesse Rodriguez, longtime participant in the Samohi scene, felt there's a bonus to working at Samo: "Being around the students is a privilege and a pleasure. And in what other job can you hear the band play or see beautiful girls march around the track?"

The custodial staff got a boost this year with the addition of new staff member Mr. Richard Lohmeyer. Mr. Lohmeyer dealt with the mechanical problems that used to require outside help. The custodians' job included frequent repainting of walls splashed with graffiti, and setting up nighttime lighting equipment.

Class of 1976

The Junior Class Board's traditional ambition was to increase the involvement of the Junior Class in school activities. This year's Board worked exceptionally hard toward that end, and acheived remarkable success.

More Juniors than in past years participated in Homecoming, helping to organize a booth, a float, and a simply stunning toilet paper decoration of the quad.

Members of the Board felt a growing interest in government from the Juniors. According to Vice President Susan Farr, "When people come to the meetings, they have the feeling of contributing to the school" Secretary Jane Netzen commented, "People feel free to give their ideas at the meetings."

Although Board members worked long and hard to make the year a success, they didn't forget the importance of having fun. "Our class is interested in having a good time with our projects, we have a relaxed atmosphere at our meetings," said President Nancy Downs.

President Celia Hirschman, Vice President Cindy Kramer, Secretary Jane Netzen, and Treasurer Nikki Provonsha stepped in to continue the campaign for involvement after the spring election. Both Boards helped make the Juniors an involved Class of '76.

Class of 1977

The Sophomore Class got involved in a big way with the Sophomore Class Board. Under fall President Chris Rodriguez, Vice President Jim Rodriguez (it runs in the family), Secretary Patti Durbin, and Treasurer Tanya Bennett, the Sophomores got organized for one of their most successful years ever.

The Sophomores participated in Homecoming with a water pistol shoot-out booth, a queen nomination, and a second place float. To finance these activities, the Sophomores sold peanuts at JV and Soph football games, (rumor had it the peanuts were stale - but they'll never tell!), held a financially worthwhile car wash, sold suckers, and planned a soccer game between the L.A. Aztecs and Samohi faculty in the spring.

The Fall Board took time off from their duties to relax at informal dinner parties throughout the semester.

Varsity Football

Ending their season on a disappointing note, Coach Kusserow and his Varsity gridders finished their 1974 campaign, losing to Hawthorne 18-8.

In their first losing season since 1945, Samohi finished the year with a 1-5-1 Bay League record and an overall mark of 1-7-1.

After being shutout in their first two encounters, the Vikes traveled to Rolling Hills. With quarterback Richard Schroeder throwing three touchdowns, the Vikes managed a tie with a Titan team that later finished third in the league.

With perhaps their best showing of the year, the Vikings routed the South Spartans, 21-0, with the big plan of the game being a 76-yard TD run by Bill McDonald.

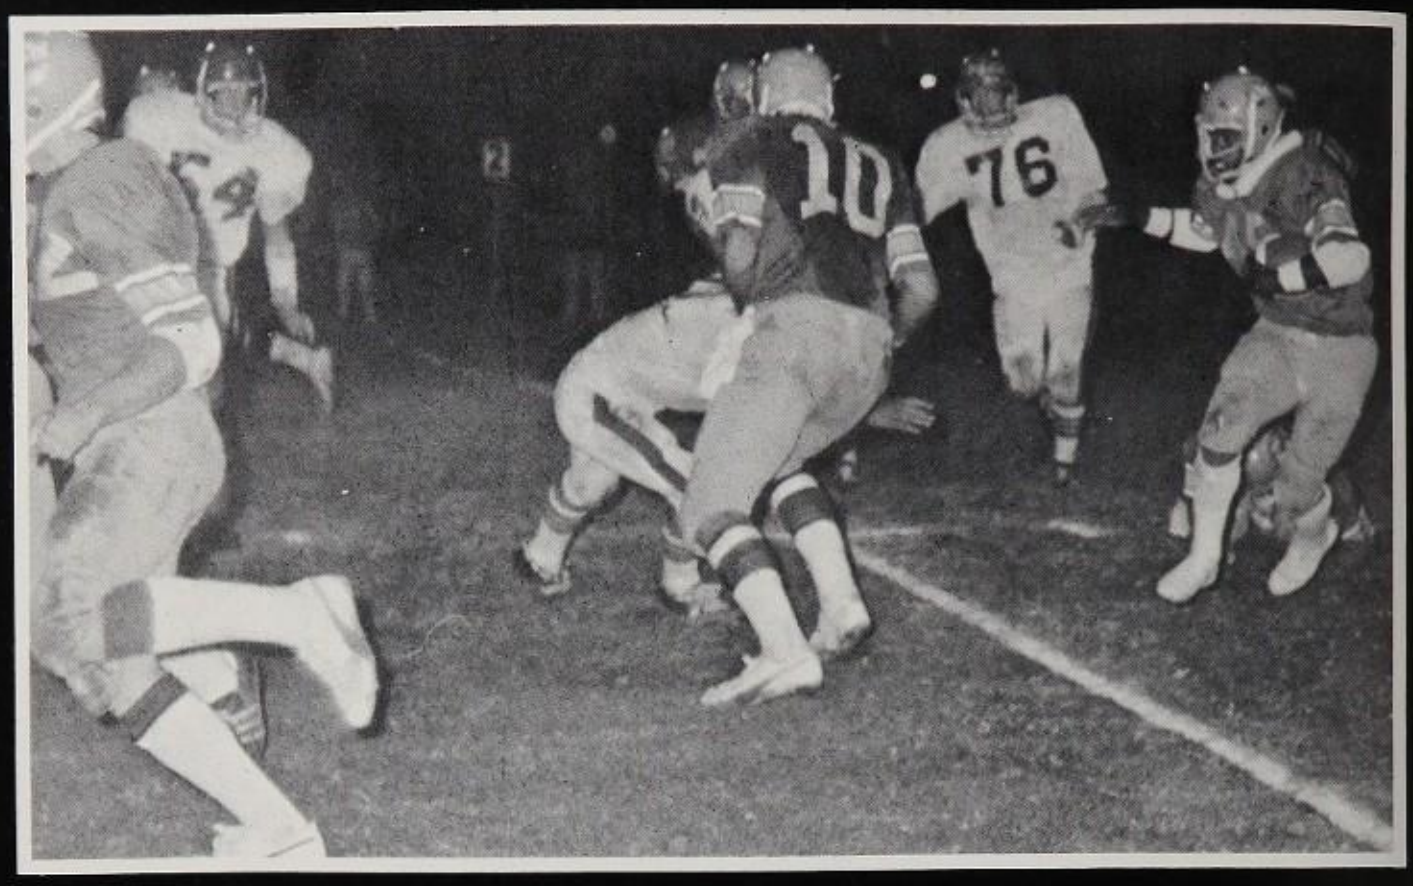
At Samohi's annual Homecoming game, the Vikings hosted the Palos Verdes Sea Kings.

Samo got on the scoreboard as Jose Lozano booted a 29-yard field goal for the only score in the first half. But that lead quickly vanished in the third quarter as the Sea Kings scored after marching 60 yards downfield. The Vikings came close to grabbing the lead back and would have, if not for a controversial call on a fumble after an apparent score.

In the final encounter of the season, Samo hosted Hawthorne. Although the Vikings defense held the Cougers scoreless for the first half, three quarters was too much to ask for.

After an interception, Hawthorne marched for a score and, with another tally late in the period, led 12-0 going into the final quarter.

With less than three minutes left in the game, quarterback Tim D'Angelo hit halfback Bob Leitelt for 57 yards and two plays later Terry Denham plowed over from the two for the last play of the year.



Running back Bill McDonald (45) heads up field as Richard Schroeder (10) and Bob Leitelt block.

Sophomore Football

The most successful of this year's football teams were the Sophomores who, under the direction of Head Coach Irv Kasten, finished the year with a 6-3 record, good for second place in Bay League.

Led by Most Valuable Player Stanley Younger, and Captain Mike Fitzsimons the Sophs opened their season on a sour note as they dropped a 12-8 decision to Dos Pueblos.

The Vikings evened their pre-season record to 1-1 as they stopped a tough Pasadena squad 18-6. This game saw the offense open up for the first time as the Sophs tallied three TD's.

As the Bay League season lay before him, Coach Kasten was somewhat optimistic about his team's chances, but he didn't have to be as the Soph's won their first four league games beating Rolling Hills 34-12, Centennial 20-0, West Torrance 26-10, and South Torrance 27-14.

In their seventh game of the season, the Vikes hosted North Torrance in an important encounter for both, one which would determine the top spot in the Bay League.

After taking a 14-7 half-time lead on touchdowns by Dennis Smith and Stanley Younger, Coach Kasten's squad opened the third quarter by marching to the Saxon's 15-yard line.

But a fumbled pitchout which was recovered by North turned all momentum around as North pulled the game out 35-20, knocking Samo out of first place.

In the final two games the Vikes were smashed by Palos Verdes 35-14 and concluded the season by downing Hawthorne 31-14.

Varsity Cross Country

Lead by Head Coach Paul Kerry this year's Varsity Cross Country team finished their season on a sour note as they were downed by powerhouse Palos Verdes 19-43 to end their season with a 2-5 Bay League record.

"This year's team did an outstanding job even though our record did not show it," commented Coach Kerry. "We were placed in the strongest league in the southern section of CIF and did quite well considering the caliber of competition we faced."

In the first competitive meet of the year, the thinclads competed in the annual Moorpark Invitational, placing eighth out of 14 teams as junior Bill Haldeman paced the Vikes with a sixth place finish against the toughest runners in CIF.

Opening their Bay League season against the Torrance Tarters harriers were set back 19-32 as junior Bill Haldeman started what was to become a most successful season for him by placing first with a time of 14:34 for the three mile run.

"Haldeman was just outstanding this season, and just think he will be back next year," stated Coach Kerry.

In their third meet of the season, the Vikings faced Mira Costa, smashing the Mustangs 26-29 for their first win of the year. "I was very pleased with their performance; we finally ran to the potential I know we have," commented Coach Kerry.

After narrowly losing to South Torrance, the Vikings met a good North Torrance squad, upsetting the Saxons 27-28 for their biggest win of the year.

Members of this year's squad include: Paulo Kuedig, Bill Messenger, Gabor Dobos, Bill Haldeman, Mark Cattlet, Steve Leasko, Bill Gibbons-Fly, and Silviano Ramirez.

Lead by Ralph Cardenas and Conrad Henning, the JV's were outmatched in many of their encounters but did manage to beat Mira Costa 21-34 and smash North Torrance 15-75 for their only victories of the season.

Although they did not win any of their seven Bay League matches, Samohi's Sophomore Squad will be a team to reckon with in the near future.

Girls' Volleyball

Once again, Samohi fielded a strong Varsity girl's volleyball team. Under the direction of Coach Marty Ruby, the '74 spikers had little trouble as they finished the year with an outstanding 17-1 record. The only loss was to CIF champs Louisville.

Led by Bay League MVP Carrie Eastman, and All League Selections Cathy Beals, Maria Palmer, Diane Doerflinger, and Robin Christensen, the Vikes opened the defense of their Bay League championship by smashing Rolling Hills 15-5, 15-4. "Rolling Hills is a pretty good team," stated Coach Ruby. "They have three outstanding players, but unfortunately their scores never showed how good they actually were."

Following the Rolling Hills match, the Vikes swept through their league slate with a 14-0 record as they completely dominated every match while winning 28 straight games.

For the third straight year, the spikers entered CIF playoff competition as they hosted San Gabrial in the first round, winning 15-1, 15-4.

In the second and third rounds of playoffs, the Vikes overcame a tough South Pasadena squad winning 15-6, 15-10 and smashed Alhambra 15-0, 15-3 in a real rout.

Entering the quarterfinals, the varsity finally met their match as they lost to eventual CIF champions Louisville for the only loss of the year 15-9, 15-10.

Members of this year's team included: Carrie Eastman, Maria Palmer, Robin Christensen, Cathy Beals, Diane Doerflinger, Dolores Temple, Suzanne Garacochea, and Lisa Nicholson.

Undefeated in their first seven matches the JV's encountered South Torrance and were stunned 15-12, 16-4 for the first loss of the year." Playing for the first time in a pressure situation, I think it got to them which could have had an effect on their performance," commented Coach Ruby.

Varsity Water Polo

Under the direction of Head Coach Frank Brooks and Assistant Coach Stuart Bumkin this year's version of the 1974 Varsity Water Polo team concluded a somewhat successful but frustrating season.

"We are in one of the toughest leagues in CIF, the fact being that the CIF champion is in our league. But I feel we did an excellent job playing the type of teams we did" commented Coach Brooks.

After two pre-season scrimmages against Long Beach and Lakewood, the tankers competed in the Moore League Tournament where they compiled a 3-2 record beating Huntington Beach, Millikan and La Serva, while losing to Downey and Beverly Hills.

Following the Moore League Tourney, the Vikes entered the Anaheim Tournament where they had a 3-1 mark losing only last years CIF champions Newport Harbor.

After smashing Rolling Hills and Inglewood in their final two pre-league encounters, the Vikings opened their Bay League season on a sour note as they were downed by Aviation 5-4 in overtime, after leading going into the final period.

Moving into the final two weeks of the season, the Vikings play-off berth looked good, and with the dusting of Burbank 14-6, CIF playoffs seemed possible.

But in their final encounter of the year, the Vikes were knocked out by Beverly Hills 8-2 which shut them out of a playoff berth.

JV, Soph Water Polo

Lead by Coach Stuart Bumkin, this year's Junior Varsity Squad had a disappointing season as they finished with a 2-8 record.

"Out lack of experience in game situations and a lack of an offensive scoring threat hurt us the most this year" commented Coach Bumkin.

In their third game of the year, the tankers encountered Inglewood and shut them out 1-0 for their first win of the year. "This was not our best game so far this season, but our best defensive effort "stated Coach Bumkin.

Taking time out between league games, the JV's competed in the Mira Costa Tourney where they grabbed a fourth place out of eight teams by defeating Miraleste 12-3.

Members of this year's team include: Sean McAfee, Bill Mammarella, Paul Reisbick, Dave Ringer, John Proehl, Dave Condon, Chris Fall, Efstathi Gourgouris, Axel Hubert and Andy Luis.

Girls' Tennis

Boys' Tennis may have dominance at Samohi by winning so many Bay League Titles, and moving in to CIF action every year, but on the other side of the court comes the Girls' Tennis team.

Under the direction of first year coach, Ardis Bonozo, the Viking netters finished strong in the tough Bay League with a impressive 11-2 record, good for second place behind undefeated Palos Verdes.

Opening the season on a successful note, the Vikes won their first four matches, including a 14 ½ -13 ½ squeaker over Rolling Hills, last year's Bay League champions. "The key to our victory against Rolling Hills was our doubles teams," explained Coach Bonozo.

In the third week of the season, the netters traveled to play top ranked Palos Verdes, but the Sea Kings were too strong as they won 21 ½ - 6 ½.

Not letting the lost get them down, the Vikings won their next six games beating some of the best teams in the Bay Area. "Our girls did so beautifully, it was really fun to watch," remarked Coach Bonozo. "They've improved tremendously since the start of the season.

When asked about this year's team Coach Bonozo replied, "This year's team was very successful, but we could have done better if not for the fact that we lost a number of top notch girls to the boys' tennis team."

Members of the team of 1974 include: Eileen Barnard, Linda Chu, Sandy Coutts, Geri Craft, Beth Firstman, Laura Gross, Stacy Holt, Susan Kane, Wendy Kissack, Denise Mervel. Merci Paskil, Raija Rauhamaa, Vivian Robinson, Sabrena Shorr, Jenny Smith.

Although a record of 2-19 isn't anything to boast about, this year's Varsity Basketball team was much better then their record showed.

Under the direction of Head Coach Jim O'Keefe and Assistant Coach Richard Beede, the cagers were truly outmatched in the extremly tough Bay League.

Of their 21 league and non-league contests 12 were against highly ranked teams in both the City and CIF.

"The Bay League is perhaps the second strongest league in the entire CIF," commented Coach O'Keefe. "We committed some costly turnovers in some important games which kept us from winning those games."

Led by Stanley Knowles, Bill Navarro, Bruce Rice, and Cliff Rooke, the cagers opened the season with a 61-50 loss to Rolling Hills and a 70-50 defeat to tough Pasadena.

Upon entering the Beverly Hills Tournament, the Vikes hit upon hard times as they lost in overtime to Buena Park 49-48 and 60-47 to crosstown rival Venice.

As the Bay League season started, the Vikings were clearly the underdog because of the extremly good teams in league.

In their first encounter the Vikes battled Inglewood to a stand still for three quarters before losing in the end 54-46. "This was definitely our best performance of the year, we had no big stars but played as a team."

In the remainder of their games, the Varsity stayed close before falling behind in either the third or fourth quarters.

"If the main point of the junior varsity is to find and develop players for the varsity, then I think that this year's team was pretty successful in that respect" was the comment made by Coach Richard Beede.

"Our won-loss record was not too outstanding but we played some very good teams this year" stated Coach Beede.

Led by Kurt Jarmusch, Donald Taylor, Bernard Fitchpatrick, Thomas Mays, and Mark Connolly, the junior varsity opened their season by losing to Rolling Hills 55-46 and Pasadena 76-56. "One of our main problems this year was our making too many turnovers, most of those turnovers came at crucial times," commented Coach Beede.

After competing in the Long Beach and Rolling Hills Tournament the junior varsity ran off three straight victories over Redondo 56-48, 34-32 over Hart and 57-56 over Bishop Amat.

Coached by Gary Luttel, the sophs posted a seasonal record of 3-5 in the tough Bay League.

"We played much better than our record showed, mostly because we were pitted against some very tough teams," commented Coach Luttel.

After losing two of their first three games, the sophs rolled off five straight victories including a 57-29 rout of Hart and a 61-46 smashing of Verbum Dei.

Opening the Bay League season on a happy note, the Vikes nicked Inglewood 60-59 and with two non-league victories over Long Beach Jordan and Hueneme, they seemed to be at the peak of their game. But then disaster struck as they dropped four of the next six games, knocking them out of a chance of winning league.

This year's team was led, according to Coach Luttel, by Stanley Younger, Rod Allen, Dennis Smith, Benito Lefont, Carlos Rivera, James Arnold, and Greg Twitchell.

"We did a lot better than I thought we would ever do," was the comment made by Coach Mike Pavich on this year's Wrestling Team.

In his first year in the Samohi wrestling program, Coach Pavich turned out a winning team as they finished with a 10-5 overall recored and a league mark of 5-1, good for second place behind Morningside.

After winning their first two meets of the year over Van Nuys 36-24 and Long Beach Wilson 33-21, the grapplers entered the San Fernando Tournament where they did exceptionally well placing second while defeating Rio Mesa 57-9, and the host school San Fernando 39-27. In the finals against Thousands Oaks the Vikes suffered their first defeat of the year, losing 48-15.

Entering league matches, the varsity was downed in the opening contest 40-24 to evental league champion Morningside. "Morningside was probably the toughest team we faced this year," commented Coach Pavich.

Following the Morningside match the varsity rolled off five straight victories, including a 54-21 decision over Inglewood.

In the league tournament held at El Segundo, Mike Jantz, Ernie Thomas, and Clint Fry all qualified for CIF.

Opening their season on a successful note, with a rout of Oxnard, the 1975 version of the Samohi Swimming Team led the Bay League from start to finish.

Under the direction of Coach Frank Brooks and Assistant Coach Stuart Blumkin, the varsity began their season with a 159 ½ to 128 ½ win of a tough Oxnard team.

Following the Oxnard meet the Vike's suffered their first setback as they were defeated by a powerful Miraleste squad 98-74. "Almost everyone did an outstanding job, but we were just beat by a better team." commented Coach Brooks.

In their third and fourth meets of the year the Vikings showed true potential as they smashed Burbank 98 ½ to 63 ½ and Aviation 103 ½ to 69 ½. Aviation should have been one of our more hardest meets but we really responded well and defeated them with no trouble." stated Coach Brooks.

Pacing the Vikes in the Burbank and Aviation meets were Jeff Cherry, Don Dorr, Joe Grafton, Dan Ringer, Dave Condon and Staphie Gourgouris.

In their final two meets the swimmers were downed by an excellent Beverly Hills team 111 to 61, and then turned around and routed Hawthorne 94-72.

In the Pali match, team captain Joel Miller downed the 17th national ranked player, Glenn Petrovic 4-6, 7-6, and 6-3 while John Maresca defeated half of the nations doubles champions, Clark Diehl 4-6, 7-6, and 7-6.

In their fourth match of the early season the Vikes smashed Redlands 25-3 as Brad Omick downed Redlands first, second, third, and fourth ranked players. "I am happy with our progress so far. If we continue we should have a very successful season," commented Coach Lee Finch.

On the road in their next two matches the Vikings downed Santa Ana 23¾ to 5¼ in a real rout and narrowly defeated Santa Barbara 15½ to 12½ to run their record to 5-1.

Although this year has not been a banner one for sports here at Samohi, this year's varsity baseball team may prove to be a different story.

Under the direction of Coaches Don Sealy and Tom McCaffery, the niners opened their season against St. Bernards as they powered out three homers en route to an 11-2 victory.

"We hit real well, which is a good sign so early in the season, commented Coach Sealy. The pitching was handled by senior Frank Caserez who picked up the win

In their second encounter of the year, the Vikes dumped Compton 5-3 as Bill McDonald paced the offense

With a record of 2-0 the Vikings faced Bishop Amat in the first home game of the year, losing 6-0. "We played poor defense and we suffered for it," commented Coach McCaffery.

Once again it was Bill McDonald who led Samo in hitting, as he went two for three at the plate, and Frank Caserez, who despite suffering the loss, pitched well in defeat.

In the fourth and fifth games of the season the Vikes went into a batting slump as they were dumped twice, by West Torrance 4-3 and Culver City 3-1

With Tim Leary opening the Bay League season with a 10-3 win over Aviation, the niners next faced Palos Verdes losing 9-2. "This was our best hitting and defensive game but our poorest pitching performance." stated Coach Sealy.

Highlighting the early Bay League season was junior Tim Leary, who continued his excellent pitching by no-hitting El Segundo. Leary allowed just three baserunners while striking out eight. "This was perhaps the best pitching performance in some time by a Samo pitcher," stated Coach Sealy.

If not for a group of men known as officials, the Samohi Varsity Soccer team's story may have been that—a different story.

Under the leadership of first year Coach Jose Lopez, who was himself an All-American soccer player at UCLA. The varsity finished the year with an overall record of 9-5-2 and an Ocean League mark of 5-4-2.

"We had a very successful season and if not for some unlucky breaks, we would have made the CIF playoffs," commented Coach Lopez.

Led by Most Valuable Player Juan Hernandez, Alberto Ibarra, Dan Alberico, Amando Perez, Ruben Villafana, and Efrain Garcia, the varsity opened the season with a 2-0 shutout over visiting Dos Pueblos, one of seven shutouts they registered during the year.

After shutouts over Agoura and Oxnard and a 4-2 decision over Harvard, the Vikes tied fifth ranked North Torrance and suffered their first loss of the year against top ranked Santa Barbara 5-1.

Posting a total of nine shutouts on the year, seven of those coming in league matches, the JV's coached by Jose Lopez, finished the year with a 7-5-4 record overall and a 5-2-3 league record good for second place in the tough Ocean League.

"We have the nucleus for an outstanding team next year because many of our better players were either sophomores or juniors," stated Coach Lopez.

Led by Juan Zamora, Ray Verda, Luiz Ribeiro, Daniel Diaz, Juan Martin, John Ajemian, Gabriel Villafana, the JV's finished their pre-league slate with a 2-3-4 record including a 1-0 victory over North Torrance and a 2-0 shutout of Harvard.

After opening their league slate with a 2-0 win over Aviation, the JV's battled their next three opponents to scoreless ties.

Following a pair of victories over Inglewood and Aviation, the JV's hit upon hard times, and they were downed by Rolling Hills 4-0 and Mira Costa 2-0, which knocked them out of a chance for the league title.

"Some of the best educations include 2 years of Army."

Let's face it. Not everyone wants to step right into college after high school.

Maybe you'd rather wait a few years. To travel, to learn a skill, to find out what you can do, to mature.

For you, today's Army can be a meaningful alternative to college.

We offer challenge. Physical and mental. We offer over 200 job-training courses to try out for. And we offer a choice of geographical location.

If you decide to start college while you're in, we'll pay 75% of your tuition. And when your enlistment's over, you'll be eligible for 36 months financial assistance at the college of your choice.

Join the people who've joined the Army.

Winds blow gently through our minds—
And dreams and fantasies
Fill our hearts with hope.
Decisions lie in all directions
Which way shall we go?
Shall we lead or Should we follow?

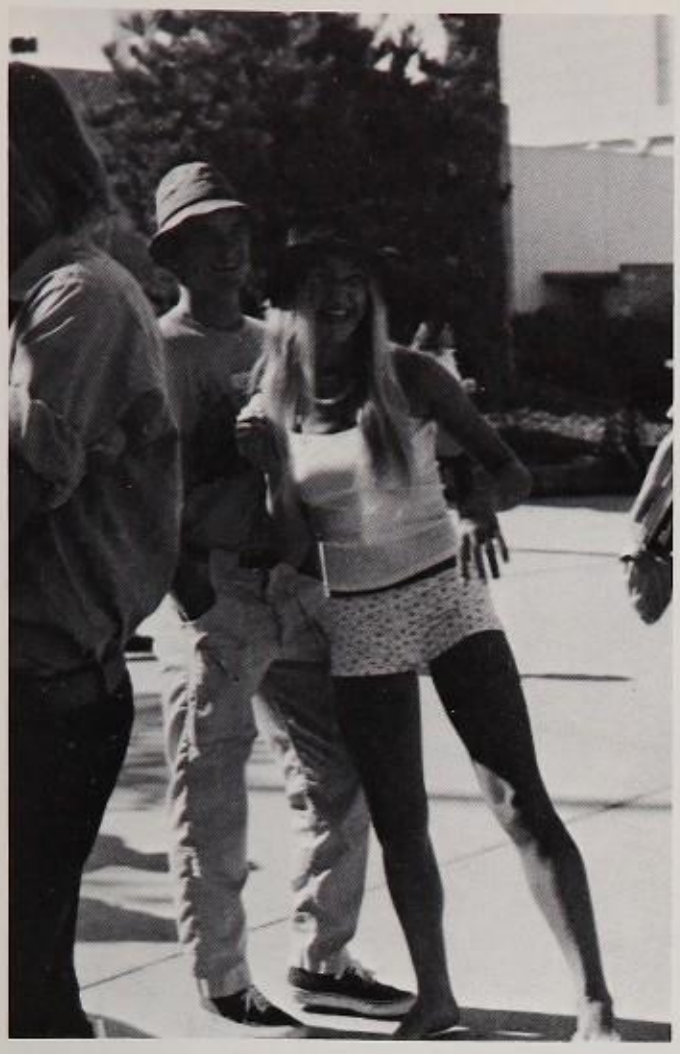
—Ralph J. Santora, Jr.

The direction we choose to walk in today decides what sort of journey we travel tomorrow.

To understand people, I must try to hear what they are NOT saying, what they perhaps will never be able to say . . .



Go on and close a door,
for there are so many more.
Remember as you start to soar—
You've come this way before.

—Nancy Priddy

From Beginning To End . . .

Deadlines have come and gone, books have been sold, problems smoothed over and proofs corrected. Now, to each one of us on the staff, there is the great satisfaction at what we have accomplished and much relief that the '75 NAUTILUS is finally completed. Every member of the staff deserves recognition and was indispensable in the publication of this, the final product of our efforts.

I would like to extend special thanks and overwhelming gratitude to Kathy Quon for keeping me from losing my sanity, to Janice Cadlini and Julie Jaskol for putting so many long, hard hours of the day and night into perfecting the copy, to Dennis Snyder for his knowledge of the postal system and his help above and beyond the call of duty, to Corine Bischetti for her dedication in sickness and in health, to Terry Meador for her great layouts, to Mark Lauren for doing all the jobs that no one else wanted, to Eddie Heckerman for his excellent photos, to Diana Dullaghan for her fantastic artwork, to our representative Phil Jordan for coming and going, to Mrs. Doan and Mrs. Gruber for their patience and understanding, and last, but not least, to our fearless advisor Mr. Larry Knuth, for keeping it all together.
